PRICE FIVE CENTS

$1,400,000 Spent Here To Restore Image Of '63

At the Campaign Gettysburg Appreciation Dinner Thursday evening in the Hotel Gettysburg, the community received high praise as a town in which much has happened to create its historic image. A spot survey conducted by the Junior Chamber of Commerce revealed an estimated expenditure of at least $1,400,000 by participants in the project sponsored by that organization with the support of The Saturday Evening Post.

Master of ceremonies at the dinner was Donald H. Becker, general chairman of the restoration program in which 87 businessmen and other citizens have participated during the last two years.

Becker introduced Thomas Piper as president of the Junior Chamber, and acknowledged him as the originator of the basic idea from which Campaign Gettysburg evolved.

Piper told an audience of nearly 150, "We are hopeful that Campaign Gettysburg has set a pattern for the future."

150 AT DINNER

Piper stressed the need for continuing work in adding shade trees and flower boxes to further beautify the community, and urged voluntary removal of overhead signs detracting from the historic image and attractiveness of the business center. "If this cannot be accomplished voluntarily," Piper said, "we would favor an ordinance to protect the investment of those who have done so much in behalf of Gettysburg's appearance."

Mayor William G. Weaver said, "There have been many changes over the years, and in my estimation, they have been changes for the better. There has been a definite need for places to adequately feed, house and entertain our visitors."

MAYOR PRAISES

He extended official and personal congratulations to The Saturday Evening Post, "our very much alive Jaycees" and the 87 participants in Campaign Gettysburg.

"From the very beginning," said Dr. Milton Osborne, head of the Department of Architecture at Penn State University, "we knew this would be a difficult job requiring contact, interest and follow-through. Through the efforts of the Jaycees response was excellent."

In a tribute to The Saturday Evening Post, he said, "not many cities have the opportunity for such sponsorship."

Referring to Dr. Osborne's sketches suggesting redesign for Campaign Gettysburg, Becker said, "Of 112 individual sketches submitted, at least some work has been accomplished on 87, a result of 77 per cent!"

JOB WELL DONE

On returning to Gettysburg after 12 months, Dr. Osborne expressed delight for "a job well done. Gettysburg is a very different town from the one I saw a year ago, a town with a real opportunity to be unique."

Dana Fernald, Philadelphia manager of The Saturday Evening Post, said,

"It is important to see a little commercial democracy in a village. Campaign Gettysburg has a wide range of values including a practical demonstration of self-reliance and strength and the building of a future for the youth of our community."

"Curtis Publishing Company," Fernald continued, "is committed to becoming the voice and conscience of our competitive enterprise system."

OPENS SATURDAY

C. William Harbaugh, public relations consultant of Biglerville and executive assistant retained by The Saturday Evening Post for Campaign Gettysburg Days, outlined the events scheduled June 15 through 22. He said, "It is especially gratifying to know we have the support and interest of citizens, institutions and organizations throughout the county. They have responded with enthusiasm to our requests for their time and talent, and many will be participating in the schedule of events beginning Saturday."

Richard A. Hartley, president of Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce, complimented the Junior Chamber "for its insight and foresight."

Others who worked on the project were mentioned by Becker as follows: Tom Piper, Harry Spang.

Campaign Gettysburg Is A Success

Dr. Milton Osborne, head of the architecture department at Pennsylvania State University, tells "wrap-up" dinner audience at Hotel Gettysburg Thursday evening, that he is "more than pleased" with the cooperative spirit shown in movement. He said the attainment is far beyond his expectations. Shown in the photograph below, from the right, are Mrs. Osborne, Donald Becker (almost concealed) and Mayor and Mrs. William G. Weaver. KE CALLS ON GOP TO ENLIST AMATEUR AID

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Number one Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower has urged the GOP to enlist "idealists and amateurs" to battle what he termed Democratic "non-action and headlong retreat on matters of national survival."

A hale and exuberant Eisenhower Thursday night capped a day of workshop sessions, sponsored by the Republican Citizens Committee with a declaration that: "Politics is becoming far too important in our individual and corporate lives to be monopolized by politicians."

MEETINGS CONTINUE

The meetings continued today with National Republican Chairman William Miller the featured speaker.

What is needed in politics, Eisenhower declared is "a hefty dose of idealism" and an injection of amateurs to "perk up a political party the way a well-advised medicine does tired blood."

SORRY RECORD

Eisenhower told his audience—to a round of applause—that the Democratic opposition has created a "sorry record that stands naked to behold, when the cunningly manipulated veneer of imagery is peeled off." He added:

"It (the electorate) should become fully aware of the political convulsion that is a way of political life for those who apparently seek power at any cost—and having won it—reach out for more and more."

Democrats and independents, as well as Republicans, are concerned, Eisenhower declared "by the nonaction and headlong retreat on matters of national survival and domestic well-being on which were promised firm, unequivocal decision and action."

CLOSED TO PRESS

All of the workshop sessions were closed to the press. C. Wrede Petersmeyer, New York, chairman of the sessions, enjoined participants to "maintain security" on the sessions.

Petersmeyer summed up the consensus of the meetings this way:

"The general feeling is that there has not been enough discussion about the current administration's handling of problems—from the Republican viewpoint."

CIVIL RIGHTS

Much of the workshop session was devoted to discussion of civil rights, participants said.

Petersmeyer described the meetings as "an attempt to tap the Republican-oriented citizens to create a better understanding of what the party is doing."

He denied reports that the citizens group was attempting to write a platform for the GOP or that it was attempting to define party standards for a presidential candidate in 1964.

COUNTIANS GET PRISON TERMS FOR ROBBERY

Penitentiary sentences were meted out to two men in Franklin County court at Chambersburg Thursday morning after they were identified as the leaders of a theft ring which robbed a 56-year-old orchard worker of nearly $5,000 and an aged Path Valley woman of $600 she was saving for her funeral expenses.

Four others involved, including two sisters, received lesser sentences. The women, one an expectant mother, were released under suspended sentences and placed under probation supervision.

Involved in the theft of the $5,000 life savings of John W. Rosenberry, a 56-year-old Edenview area orchard worker, were James F. Garner, 41, and his son, James W., 17, both of Gardners; William J. Bryan, 44, Chambersburg, and Harold W. Shatzer, 19, of Fannettsburg.

PLEADS GUILTY

The elder Garner pleaded guilty Thursday morning to two charges of robbery and a charge of robbery with accomplice. His son pleaded guilty to a charge of robbery with accomplice and burglary and larceny. Bryan pleaded guilty to a charge of robbery and robbery with accomplice and Shatzer to a charge of robbery with accomplice.

Young Garner and his pregnant wife, Jeannette, 19, and her sister, Mildred Louise Wood, 20, of Richmond Furnace, admitted stealing $600 in cash from the home of Mrs. Anne Margaret Glass, 92, of Richmond Furnace. Police quoted Mrs. Glass as saying she had saved the money for her funeral expenses.

HAS POLICE RECORD

The elder Garner, who has a police record extending back to 1940, was sentenced to serve three concurrent sentences of five to 15 years in a penitentiary. Bryan received two concurrent penitentiary sentences of 2½ to five years. The two are to be delivered.

GAS LINE LEAK IS BLAMED FOR BLAST AND FIRE

A leak in a line that carried bottled gas into the four-room frame home of Mr. and Mrs. John Musselman, near Iron Springs, was blamed today for the explosion and fire that destroyed the dwelling early Thursday afternoon.

That possible explanation of the blast and fire was offered by Kenneth Sites, assistant chief of the Fairfield Fire Company which was called to the scene but had to confine its efforts to saving nearby buildings.

Only charred sections of the outer walls of the Musselman home remained after the blaze spread swiftly through the house after explosion and that ripped panels out of doors and was heard by neighbors.

FAMILY WAS AWAY

The Musselman family was away from home when the explosion and fire occurred. Mr. Musselman was working at the Fairfield shoe factory and his wife and three children were in Waynesboro on a shopping trip. Nothing was saved from the home and Fairfield firemen announced immediately that they will accept donations of clothing and furniture for the family.

A pilot light could have caused the explosion, Sites said. He estimated the damage at $5,000. The house was owned by Marshall Kuykendall, Fairfield R. 1. It was not known whether he carried insurance on the dwelling into which the Musselmans had moved only a short time ago.

Jack Musselman, father of John, who lives nearby, said he heard the sound of the explosion. Flames appeared to envelop the entire one-story home very quickly, he said.

Firemen asked for clothing in these sizes for members of the burned-out family: Father, pants, 29-29, shorts 14½ and shoes 7½; mother, blouse 34, skirt 26 and shoes 7½; oldest daughter, size 7 dress, size 1 shoes; second daughter, size 6 dress and 1½ shoes, and the son, size 5 pants, size 6 shirt and 10 shoes.

HOUCK IS HELD FOR COURT IN "RACING" CASE

Ray F. Houck Jr., 26, Littlestown R. 1, was held for August court by Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder Thursday evening after a hearing on a drag racing charge. He renewed $500 bail.

The charge grew out of state police investigation of the auto crash early on the morning of May 25 just north of Littlestown on the Gettysburg highway in which Charles E. Yingling, 33, 67 W. Myrtle St., Littlestown, and Mrs. Shirley V. Kiser, 31, Taneytown R. 2, were killed.

Houck's car was wrecked on the same curve but he was unhurt while both Yingling and Mrs. Kiser were killed instantly.

WERE DRINKING TOGETHER

Witnesses testified that Yingling, Houck and Mrs. Kiser had been drinking together at the bar at the Two Mile Inn, two miles north of the crash scene on the Gettysburg Rd., a few minutes before the crash. At the tavern, witnesses said, Yingling and Kiser were discussing which had the faster car. Both were 1955 model Buicks.

There was no testimony that anyone saw them racing or heard them plan a speed test and Attorney S. M. Raffensperger, who represented Houck at the hearing, asked Justice Snyder to dismiss the case for lack of evidence. Houck did not testify.

The prosecutor, Trooper John P. Forbes of the Gettysburg substation of the state police, testified that it was not until June 5 when Houck was enroute to the Gettysburg borough police station for a lie detector test that he gave the officer what Forbes described as a "full and complete" account.

WARNER BOARD NAMES TEETER TO 2ND TERM

John D. Teeter was re-elected president of the Annie M. Warner Hospital at the organization meeting of the directors Thursday evening at the hospital.

Meeting as members of the hospital corporation eight directors were selected for three-year terms expiring in 1966. Six presently serving as directors were re-elected and two new directors were selected. W. Roy Starry, York Springs, was recognized for his long service to the hospital by being made director emeritus.

Dr. C. A. Hanson, president of Gettysburg College, was selected to replace the late Dr. Frank H. Kramer, also of Gettysburg College, who served the hospital as a director for many years.

PITTENTURF ELECTED

Romayne Pittenturf, York Springs, was elected a director from that area replacing Roy Starry, the veteran director who assumed emeritus status.

Following their election of Teeter as president, the new board returned to office for another year the team which served with President Teeter during the past year. Clark Smith, Gettysburg; Allen Stauffer, Biglerville, and Charles Ritter, Littlestown, are first, second and third vice presidents respectively. Philip M. Jones was returned as treasurer and Ted Tussing was re-elected secretary.

All incumbents of positions under the supervision of the directors were reappointed, as were members of the medical and dental staffs.

DILLON'S REPORT

Walter B. Dillon, in his report as administrator, stated that the decline in use of maternity facilities is in line with the state experience where statistics show the high of 22.8 live births per 1,000 population in 1957 had dropped to 19.7 in 1962 and that the first six months of 1963 indicate continued gradual decline. Medical and surgical census, however, has been on the increase. Occupancy in 1960 was 73.54 per cent, whereas the first five months of 1963 has advanced to 85.75 per cent.

The administrator indicated that on occasions the medical service facilities of the hospital can be taxed to capacity and compel use of hallways and sun areas although there is unoccupied.

Blain, Mangum R. 1, Okla.

NAMED MASTER

Attorney Donald G. Oyler has been named master in the divorce action by Donald B. Hess against Esther A. (Koontz) Hess.

The saga of what happens when an entire community unites in a public project was convincingly told the directors of the Warner Hospital Thursday evening when a check for $13,214.73 was presented to the hospital to be applied to the building fund indebtedness.

The gift was the surplus from the Adams County Medical Society - sponsored oral polio clinics conducted earlier this year throughout the county during which 81,400 doses of vaccine were purchased and administered.

When the program was initially staged, the Adams County Medical Society announced that any deficit incurred would be borne by the society and what, if any, surplus accrued would be turned over the hospital to be applied to the building fund indebtedness. The society felt that such application of any surplus money would mean its retention locally in the interest and to the benefit of all in the area served by the hospital.

GENEROUS RESPONSE

Announcement of the project by the county medical society met with instantaneous response and offers of cooperation. The medical society, in a letter to President John D. Teeter, of the hospital, said:

"This result could not have been achieved, nor could the project have been so successful, had it not been for the response of various service clubs, school boards in making buildings, and personnel available, fire police, local police, volunteer nurses, druggists, doctors and other citizens."

The money, of course, represents donations from the population of Adams County at large, recipients of the vaccine. Many contributions were in excess of the suggested but not requisite 25-cent donation.

This, however, is not all of the story. A contributing factor to the financial success was an unexpected reduction in the price of the vaccine that occurred between the initial planning stage and the actual administration. Secondly, good management on the part of the county medical society established close co-ordination.

ROSE EXPERT LECTURES AT BIGLERVILLE

Mrs. Harry Weber, Shiremans-town, past president of the Har-risburg Rose Society and an ac-credited American Rose Society judge, told 52 members and guests of the Biglerville Garden Club Monday afternoon that "love is the first requisite in the success-ful growing of roses."

Mrs. Weber spoke at a tea sponsored by the Biglerville club in the social rooms of St. Paul's Lutheran Church and which was attended by guests from the Gettysburg, Chestnut Hill and Stra-bana Garden Clubs. Mrs. O. A. Nary and Earl Carey were co-chairmen of the program.

Mrs. Weber said that a rose grower must "love roses enough to know when they need care and attention." She used a display of roses from her own garden to illustrate the cultural program necessary to grow roses and called her program "The 10 Com-mandments of Rose Culture."

SHOWED SLIDES

The speaker emphasized the im-portance of location, preparation of rose beds, planting, pruning, fertilizing, mulching, spraying and protecting the plants. Her display included hybrid tea, floribunda, grandiflora, climber, old roses and miniature roses. She con-cluded her lecture with color slides of famous American rose gardens she has visited on judg-ing tours.

Mrs. Ward Houck was chair-man of the tea committee, and was assisted by Mrs. Robert Gil-lelan, Mrs. Donald Tyson, Miss Alma Miller, Mrs. Frank Hewet-son and Miss Gail Bell.

At the short business meeting prior to the lecture, Mrs. M. Francis Coulson reported that 25 girls between the ages of seven and 15 attended the flower ar-rangements workshop Saturday which was under the instruction of Mrs. H. COUNTIANS GET ON PROBATION

Mrs. Garner and Miss Wood in being released under suspended sentences were placed under proba-tionary supervision for a year. They must pay the prosecution costs and make restitution to Mrs. Glass. Miss Wood also was di-rected to pay $100 to the coun-ty's law library fund in lieu of the imposition of a fine.

The other defendants were told that as a part of their sentences they must make restitution to Rosenberry in amounts computed by the district attorney's office. State police Trp. Robert Filer said that Garners, Bryan and Shatzer were implicated in thefts of money from Rosenberry which extended back to 1959. Rosenberry, who lives in his car parked at the place of his orchard employ-ment, was first robbed of $1,700 by Garner and Bryan in 1959 after they learned of his cash holdings, the court was told.

In periodic intervals, one or another of the group returned time after time to Roseberry and after his savings had been ex-hausted they began taking his or-chard earnings under threats of violence, Filer said. Rosenberry, reported by police to have been in fear of bodily harm, never re-ported the matter to police. The investigation which led to the ar-rests was finally begun in mid-April when Roseberry's employer suspected that something was amiss.

Dr. Lull Ordained Episcopal Priest

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dr. Howard W. Lull, chief of the U. S. Forest Service's Northeast Water-shed Management Research Divi-sion, will be ordained a priest June 28, the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania announced today.

Lull plans to continue his gov-ernment work. He has been a per-petual deacon for the past five years at Christ Church, in nearby Media, where he, his wife and five children reside. His advance-ment to the priesthood will make it possible for him to function in a wider area, said the Rt. Rev. J. Gillespie Armstrong, bishop coad-jutor of the diocese.

A deacon may not celebrate the Holy Eucharist, the central act of the church's worship.

Wallace Houston Jr., former Downingtown businessman, also will be elevated to the priesthood June 22. The ceremony for him and Lull will be conducted by Bishop Armstrong in Christ Church at Media.

SOVIET PILOT ORBITS EARTH IN LONG FLIGHT

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev announced the Soviet Union put its fifth man into orbit today. He hinted at least one more cosmonaut may join him in what may be another space ven-ture lasting several days.

The launching puts the Soviet Union one ahead of the United States, which announced the end of its Project Mercury space flights two days ago.

The new cosmonaut was identi-fied as Lt. Col. Valeri Fedorovich Bykovsky, 29, from a small town near Moscow. His craft is named Vostok V.

PILOT REPORTS

The Soviet news agency Tass said "the pilot himself reports, and the telemetric system con-firms, that he satisfactorily with-stood the putting into orbit and the transition to a state of weight-lessness and hat he feels well."

Tass reported the space craft was orbiting the earth once every 88 minutes from altitudes of 112 miles to 146 miles.

The capsule was reported cir-cling at a 65 degree angle in the equator and broadcasting on 20,006 and 143,625 megacycle fre-quencies.

In contrast to the austere radio announcements of previous manned space flights, Khrushchev broke the news of this one to Har-old Wilson, visiting leader of the British Labor party, at a Kremlin meeting.

Wilson, remembering that the last Soviet manned flights in Au-gust 1962 had two men aloft at once, asked how many were up this time.

ONE MAN ALOFT

"Only one so far," said Khrush-chev, spreading his arms wide apart to emphasize his point.

Tass said the purpose of the new launching is to continue stud-ies of the influence of various fac-tors of space flight on the human body and to continue study of con-ditions of a long flight.

This indicated that the flight of Bykovsky may be a long one.

The last Soviet launchings Aug. 11, and 12, 1962, saw cosmonauts Andrian Nikolayev and Pavel Popovich come close to one an-other while in orbit. They were christened "The Heavenly Twins." Nikolayev, the first off the launching pad, was aloft just short of four days.

Moscow radio said Vostok V was functioning normally.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission reports success in its efforts to insure against racial discrimination in the Gettysburg area during this summer's Civil War centennial celebration.

Executive Director Elliott M. Shirk said Thursday only one of 248 proprietors visited in the area refused to post the commission's notice of the state law against discrimination.

The one was not identified.

STATEWIDE CAMPAIGN

The Gettysburg project was part of a statewide campaign started last October to acquaint Pennsylvania establishments with the law banning discrimination in any public restaurant, tavern, hotel or motel.

Shirk said the field staff concentrated in the Gettysburg area because of the thousands of tourists expected to observe the 100th anniversary of the Civil War battle there.

The area covered extends from Lancaster to Chambersburg and Harrisburg to the Maryland state line.

Following a substantial increase in laundry charges, which the local laundry described as necessary and overdue, the administrator said that studies of this are now being conducted. The increase in rate will represent $6,500 annual increase in operating costs.

HOUCK IS HELD

of the events leading up to the accident. As a consequence, the lie detector test to which Houck had agreed was not given.

"OVER 70 MILES AN HOUR"

Forbes quoted Houck as admitting on June 5 that he had left the Two Mile Inn back of Yingling and had driven at speeds of "70 or 80 miles an hour" to pass Yingling as they drove toward Littlestown. He told the police Yingling apparently was trying to pass him when he ran off the curve. Stones and gravel thrown by the Yingling car as it went off the curve caused Houck to lose control of his car and it rolled over.

At the scene of the crash the morning of the accident, the officer quoted Houck as having admitted speeds of only about 50 miles per hour enroute to Littlestown, omitted any mention of his passing Yingling but blamed Yingling's running off the highway for his own crash.

NO TALK OF RACING

Jesse W. Elicker, 111 Park Ave., bartender at the Two Mile Inn, was called as a witness and told of serving drinks to both men as they talked about which had the faster car and each said how fast his would go. Elicker said he did not hear any talk of a race or speed test that night. He said neither driver was intoxicated. Both are "swell fellows," he added.

Mrs. Agnes Chronister, Littlestown R. 1, also a Two Mile Inn guest that morning, said Houck and Yingling left at the same time she and her husband did. They backed out of the parking area "bumper to bumper" but she said their driving was "normal." Her husband, Warren E. Chronister, gave a similar statement.

District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter conducted questioning of the state's witnesses.

As a result of the order, inspection stations will be set up at one or several places in the county where some fruits and all green vegetables leaving for non-infested areas must be inspected to see that they are free of the pest. Peaches are among fruits affected.

Today's Talk

TAKE YOUR LIGHTEST LUGGAGE

The mistake most of us make is to carry about with us, wherever we go, too much luggage. The traveler learns this very early, and begins to discharge a part as he goes along.

One can never, however, carry enough in one's mind. There is room there. No one can tell by looking at a man's head how much there is in it. It is the wonder of wonders how some small heads can carry the equipment that they do.

The lightest equipment that any of us can carry is that which we have stored in our minds early in life. You can keep giving that stored wealth away — yet it still remains. All through life the things that were committed to memory in youth, keep coming up before one's consciousness. Bible sentences memorized, quotations from the great writers and poets of the world, inspiring clipped and put to memory — these things are the lightest equipment that a man can carry about with him. They can neither be lost nor stolen.

I had a friend who was a regular encyclopedia of facts, information and unusual knowledge. You could hardly talk with him five minutes before he opened the door of his mind — and a regular flood of quotations and interesting information flowed forth.

There is no expense to the baggage of ideas and knowledge that you carry around with you in your mind. It, therefore, becomes the finest investment in the world to fill your mind as full as possible — and it is never possible to over fill it.

Wise sayings, quotations, and bits from the great minds of the world stored in the mind, not only make light baggage, but they lighten one's way through life, and increase the delights of journeying.

Writers and speakers gem their own product with them and every good conversationalist introduces them as his friends. And what friends they are! Especially to the lonely.

See Little Chance Of Breaking Deadlock On East-West Tests' Ban

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Top U.S. officials have very little hope at the moment that the Moscow nuclear test ban talks next month will lead to a breakthrough in the long East-West deadlock.

Their primary reason is that Soviet Premier Khrushchev is reported to be holding rigidly to his position that a test ban treaty can be adequately enforced without any kind of international inspection inside the Soviet Union.

Another reason for lack of optimism regarding the U.S.-British-Russian negotiations in mid-July is that officials believe Khrushchev is under heavy pressure from his military advisors to hold another series of nuclear weapons tests later this year.

RESUMED TESTS
The Soviet Union, after a three-year moratorium, resumed testing in 1961 and followed up with a second round of tests in 1962. After the Soviets scuttled the moratorium the United States also tested, and some of the best-informed authorities here now believe that the arms race probably will go on in this pattern with new weapons experiments in the fall.

If this is the outlook, Washington authorities are puzzled about the reasons why Khrushchev has chosen during the past week to respond as he has to Western initiative related to the test ban issue.

RE-EXAMINE PLAN
The first of these moves came a week ago when he accepted a proposal by Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan to hold high level discussions in an effort to re-examine the inspection and detection problem and see whether the deadlock might be broken.

The speculation most generally favored by U.S. officials is that the display of Soviet friendliness may be a maneuver dictated by Khrushchev's strategy in approaching talks with the Red Chinese over the split in the Sino-Soviet bloc, rather than by Khrushchev's desire to create a favorable atmosphere for the test ban talks.

JULY 5 MEETING
Soviet and Chinese representatives are scheduled to meet in Moscow on July 5. One of Khrushchev's purposes at the moment could be to try to get across to the Red Chinese and to people in Russia that his policy of "peaceful coexistence" with the West is pay-

Just Folks

RAIN ON A HOLIDAY
Rain fell upon our holiday
And spoiled the joys we'd planned.
The skies were very cold and gray
And cold and wet the land.

As sullen as the skies we grew,
Heart-sore and heavy-eyed.
We grumbled, just as children do
Whose wishes are denied.

We fretted, just as children fret
Whose whims are not allowed.
Men of high faith, we thought,
And yet,
Crushed by a passing cloud.

We'd boasted oft our hearts were stout
For any test or strain,
And yet that day we sat about
And grumbled at the rain.

Gaullist Group Okays Pact Today

PARIS (AP)—The Gaullist majority in the National Assembly approved the French-West German cooperation treaty today. Debate on the pact starts Thursday in the Senate, where approval is a virtual certainty.

The assembly vote was 325-107, with 42 abstentions. Supporters of European unity attacked the treaty as unduly nationalistic and outdated.

The Senate's action will complete ratification of the accord signed in January by President Charles de Gaulle and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to foster cooperation in political, military and economic affairs.

The West German Parliament gave its final approval May 31.

ing off in improved relations with the United States.

The theme of Moscow's comment on Kennedy's speech has been that the American president was moving toward peaceful co-existence.

Behind the scenes, however, all well-informed officials here agree that there had been no hint of any kind of concessions by Russia toward the test ban. There is even a serious question in the minds of top policy makers whether the offer Khrushchev made last December of two or three on-site inspections a year in Russia still stands.

"THING OF PAST"
In discussions with some Western visitors in recent weeks Khrushchev has spoken of that offer as a thing of the past. It has not been formally withdrawn, however.

The messages which Khrushchev sent Kennedy and Macmillan last week have not been made public. But it can be stated on excellent authority that while the tone was generally cordial Khrushchev de-

FORMER LOCAL PASTOR NAMED AS DELEGATE

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—A Report on race relations and drinking takes the spotlight today at the 95th meeting of the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Church.

Conference aides said the report would include a discussion on drinking at Methodist related colleges such as Dickinson, Allegheny and Lycoming.

Earlier this year the Philadelphia Conference of the Methodist Church threatened to cut off financial support to Dickinson because of what it called a new policy on student drinking.

DENIED BY DICKINSON
However, Dickinson denied the claim, saying its policy on student drinking has never changed, but that it had put into effect an experimental program to improve social behavior.

The Central Pennsylvania Conference adopted a $1,140,519 budget Thursday and elected eight delegates for the World-wide Methodist Conference at Pittsburgh next April.

The budget, submitted by the

CHURCH ORDERS INTEGRATION

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa. (AP)—The United Presbyterian Synod of Pennsylvania has called for racial integration in all its churches.

It concluded its 82nd annual meeting Thursday by passing a resolution asking its churches to welcome members to membership without regard to color, origin or worldly condition.

The synod asked presbyteries

"to aid in the integration of local communities and make efforts to achieve justice and equal opportunity for all people in such areas as economic life, employment, housing, education and recreation."

This resolution booked similar racial policies outlined at the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. last month. A state Commission on Race and Religion comprised of 15 Negro and white Presbyterian leaders will be established.

KOUFAX GETS 5TH SHUTOUT FOR DODGERS

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Sandy Koufax seemed headed for his first 20-victory season today after blanking Houston 3-0 on three hits Thursday night — his fifth shutout — to keep the Los Angeles Dodgers off front in the National League pennant scramble.

Koufax struck out 10 Colts—the 45th time in his career he has fanned 10 or more batters in a game—and brought his record to 9-3.

The 27-year-old left-hander, reducing his earned run average to a glittering 1.77, has recorded four of his shutouts and compiled a 5-0 record at home. And he has allowed only two runs at Dodger Stadium in 54 2-3 innings.

GIANTS EDGE CUBS

Koufax' latest shutout left the Dodgers .002 points ahead of runners-up San Francisco and St. Louis at the top of the standings. The Giants edged the Chicago Cubs 2-1 on Willie Mays' 10th-inning homer while the Cardinals thumped Philadelphia 7-3 in a game held to 5½ innings by rain.

Fourth-place Cincinnati used homers by Leo Cardenas and Gordy Coleman to whip Pittsburgh 4-2 behind the five-hit pitching of John Tsitouris. The New York Mets-Milwaukee game was rained out.

Mays' 12th homer and Felipe Alou's 13th, in the seventh inning, got the job done for the Giants and Billy O'Dell who brought his record to 9-2 by retiring the last 13 Cubs in order. O'Dell was touched for six hits—one a single by loser Dick Ellsworth that drove in the Chicago run. Ellsworth, 8-5, allowed only four hits.

The Cardinals scored four times in the first inning against the Phillies. An error by Roy Sievers let in one run and the others came across on hits by Charley James, George Altman and Julian Javier. Gene Oliver later knocked in two St. Louis runs with an inside-the-park homer. Ernie Broglio, tagged for homers by Sievers and Earl Averill, was the winner for a 7-2 record. Chris Short, 1-7, was the loser.

Cardenas' homer got the Reds in the scoring column before Coleman's two-run homer in the fourth inning put it out of the Pirates' reach. Tsitouris, who gave up two runs in the first inning, drove in the final run with a single and settled down to pitch no-hit ball over the final four innings. He is now 2-1. Don Cardwell, 2-3, took the loss.

CANDY SPOTS IS ENTERED IN $100,000 RACE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Candy Spots, who was upset last week in the Belmont Stakes, will tackle the $100,000 Chicagoan at Washington Park as four major races for 3-year-olds headline the Saturday thoroughbred program.

The 1¼-mile Chicagoan inaugurates the Mid-America Triple series for 3-year-olds, all worth $100,000, and six rivals are expected to oppose Rex Ellsworth's Candy Spots, who won the Preakness but was beaten by Chateaugay in the Belmont and Kentucky Derby.

Entries were taken Thursday for the $50,000 Queen's Plate, Canada's richest and most important race, and 19 were named for the 1¼-mile event at Toronto's Woodbine. It will be the 104th running of the 3-year-old classic.

$35,000 STAKES

Seven or eight 3-year-olds are expected for the $35,000 Leonard Richards Stakes at Delaware Park, with 15 or more 3-year-old fillies due to contest the $15,000 Miss Woodford Stakes at Monmouth Park. The Leonard Richards is 1¼-mile, the Miss Woodford 6 furlongs.

Older horses compete at Hollywood Park in the $50,000 Inglewood Handicap, 1-16 miles, and in the $25,000 Bowling Green Handicap, 1-16 miles, and in the $25,000 Bowling Green Handicap, 1¼ miles on the Aqueduct grass course.

Prepare Dramatic Funeral For Slain Leader Of NAACP

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY JACKSON Miss. (AP)—An air of foreboding hung over this city today as Negro leaders signaled for a "March, March, March" strategy and prepared a dramatic funeral for a slain civil rights leader.

Police and FBI agents pursued clues into several states in their hunt for the sniper who ambushed Medgar Evers, a field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, early Wednesday.

Evidence found near the scene of the murder had been rushed to the FBI laboratories in Washington, but so far there was no solution of the crime.

The evidence included one fingerprint found on a rifle evidently used to kill Evers as he prepared to enter his home.

FUNERAL SATURDAY

Civil rights leaders from many states are expected to attend the funeral of Evers at the Negro Masonic Temple Saturday. It was announced that Evers, a veteran of World War II, would be buried in Arlington National Cemetery some time next week.

Negro leaders rallied their followers to press forward with their street marches in protest against racial barriers. Such demonstrations led Thursday to 90 arrests, and some club-swinging by police.

A white professor who joined in the demonstrations got a hero's reception when he appeared in a bloodied shirt Thursday night at a rally of hymn-singing, cheering

SEEKS OIL REFINERY

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union wants to buy a $280million oil refinery from Britain, British Labor party leader Harold Wilson says.

Wilson, reporting on conferences Thursday with Soviet Trade Minister Nikolai Patolichev, said the Russians have discussed the deal with British industrialists. He did not indicate what progress had been made.

"I know how such committees operate and I know they don't work," the mayor said.

The Negro leaders' version of the conference was given later at the NAACP rally in the church, where some 500 people linked hands and swayed as they sang and cheered in the steaming heat.

BOY, 4, MADE U.S. CITIZEN; MAY NOT LIVE

By SAM KINDRICK

San Antonio Express Staff Writer Written for the Associated Press

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Jimmy Yokley, 4, became a U.S. citizen Thursday.

Tomorrow he may die.

Doctors at Brooke General Hospital hold no hope for the German-born boy stricken with a brain malady. It was this that prompted his adopted parents to request an unusual naturalization ceremony.

"If he must die, the baby will die an American citizen," said his father, Staff Sgt. Maurice Yokley of San Antonio.

Federal Judge Adrian Spears waived the four remaining days on the two-year residence requirement so the youngster could be naturalized.

Jimmy Yokley has undergone seven brain operations since July 1961. Doctors think his trouble may have started with an insect bite.

The Yokleys have a daughter, Tangle, 7. It was after her birth that Mrs. Yokley learned she could bear no more children.

They adopted Jimmy while Yokley was stationed at Ludwigsburg, Germany.

REDS HOLDING TWO YANKEES

PANMUNJOM, South Korea (AP)—A North Korean general refused again today to disclose the fate of two U.S. pilots.

Asked to "act like men living in the 20th Century," the Communist whipped out a photograph of a police dog lunging at a Negro in Birmingham, Ala.

"Such coldblooded atrocities are the true picture of what you call civilization and respect for human rights," said Maj. Gen. Chang Chun-hwan.

The U.N. member of the Military Armistice Commission, Maj. Gen. George H. Cloud, replied that racial tensions in the United States had nothing to do with the business of the commission.

The meeting was the fifth since the Army helicopter of Capt. Ben W. Stutts, 30, of Florence, Ala., and Capt. Charleton W. Voltz, 26, of Frankfort, Mich., was forced down in Communist territory May 17.

Miss Martell Will Play Lead In Summer Stock

Miss Patricia Martell will be the leading lady for the new Summer Theater in Gettysburg which opens Wednesday evening with Jean-Paul Sartre's "No Exit."

Miss Martell is the wife of Emilie O. Schmidt, producer-director of the Summer Theater, and a faculty member at Gettysburg College. The Schmidts are parents of two daughters, Kristine, 3, and Jennifer, 15 months old.

A native of Massachusetts and a professional actress, Miss Martell recently appeared in a television series "Springfield Drama Trio" and was the leading actress for the Ivy Players of Springfield, Mass., before coming to Gettysburg last year. She made her stage debut in summer stock in William Inge's "Picnic."

IN ALL PLAYS

She will appear this summer in all eight productions of the local theater's "Festival of Modern Drama." Her numerous characterizations have run the gamut of age and emotion from G. B. Shaw's charming Candida, to be recreated this summer, July 24-27, and the loyal wife Linda Loman in Arthur Miller's "Death of a Salesman," to Ibsen's cruel and cunning Hedda Gabler or Shakespeare's immortal Lady Macbeth. Other notable stage credits include the flirtatious and outspoken Patty O'Neill in Herbert's "The Moon Is Blue," the burdened Juno Boyle in O'Casey's "Juno and the Paycock," and the touching Alison Porter in John Osborne's "Look Back In Anger."

Among her stage portrayals this summer are those of such diverse theatrical characters as the distraught, middle-aged Victorian matron, Mrs. Alving, in Henrik Ibsen's "Ghosts" (June 26-29) and the fascinating Blanche DuBois in Tennessee Williams' violently passionate "A Streetcar Named Desire" (August 7-10).

COMEDY OPENS AT TOTEM POLE

A fun-packed comedy about a carefree Casanova, who teaches his kid brother how to be a successful wolf and comes to regret it, will open the 1963 summer season at the Totem Pole Playhouse Saturday evening at 8:40 o'clock. "Come Blow Your Horn," by Neil Simon, caused New York audiences to laugh for 85 weeks.

Producer-Director William H. Putsch will present to the public his new company and welcomes the return of Jean Stapleton, last season's award winner, in the hilarious role of the bachelor-boys' mother, Engle Conrow, who has traveled from Hollywood to join

JEAN STAPLETON

The Totem Pole Company, will portray the elder brother who has infuriated his father by reaching the age of 33 and still not marrying.

Damien Martin of New York City will be seen in the role of the younger son who runs away from home to take refuge in his elder brother's bachelor apartment. Nancy Foster, last seen on Broadway opposite Alfred Drake in "Kean," will portray the young lady determined to put an end to the Casanova bachelorhood, while Jean DuBrow will be seen as one of his many charming conquests.

Arden Kiser, another newcomer to the Totem Pole stage who appeared under Putsch's direction in the Equity Library Theater production of "The Potting Shed" in New York last fall, will play the stern father. The final member of the cast who is a "surprise" character, will be played by Mildred Hornbaker of Chambersburg. The swank apartment on New York's east side, is designed by Al Wagner with decor by Betty Knepper.

The production will be played nightly through June 22, with a matinee at 2:30 on Wednesday.

PARISH WOMEN WILL WORK FOR LIBRARY FUND

In response to an appeal from the Friends of the Library, the executive board of the St. Aloysius Parish Council of Catholic Women, decided at a special meeting on Thursday evening, held at the home of the president, Mrs. Bernard M. Selby, Prince St., to aid in the community solicitation for the Adams County Library Development Fund.

The gesture is being made in appreciation of the services rendered by the bookmobile from the Adams County Public Library, which has visited the local schools, both public and parochial, biweekly, for the last 10 years or more, and with the permission of the pastor, the Rev. Dr. John E. Metz.

Mrs. Paul E. Altoff was appointed general chairman of the committee to organize the solicitation. Each member of the executive board in attendance will be responsible for securing solicitors for one of the streets and the complete committee will be announced in the near future. The campaign will be conducted on Monday, June 24, beginning at 6 p.m. A number of local citizens have received literature through the mail from the Development Fund committee, and all of those who desire to do so may give their signed pledge cards to the solicitor who calls on them. Anyone else desiring to make a pledge may do so. Pledges, which are income tax deductible, may be paid over a period of four years. Those who do not wish to make a pledge may give a cash contribution to the solicitor.

In explaining the need for funds, it was noted that this is a campaign for brick, mortar and equipment and it will happen only once, representing a long term investment which will continue to pay dividends for years to come. Since 1947 when there were slightly over 8,000 books in the library with a thousand borrowers, the demands have increased until in 1962 there were 37,836 books and 9,055 borrowers. The library services have outgrown the facilities and it is hoped that the Development Fund will raise the necessary $100,000 needed for efficient operation. Contributions of any size will be gratefully accepted.

Mrs. Atlee F. Rebert is in charge of soliciting the business places and industries of the community for their pledges and will be making contacts from now on.

was also the recipient of the Bachelor of Science degree in Pharmacy. She is a member of Lambda Kappa Sigma Sorority. Miss Yingling is employed by Rea and Derrick Drug Store in Hanover.

Want Peace Talks In Laos Resumed

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—British Ambassador Donald Hopson and Soviet Ambassador Sergei Afanassiev flew to Pathet Lao headquarters at Khang Khay today in an attempt to get the pro-Communists to resume peace talks with neutralist Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma.

Britain and the Soviet Union are co-chairmen of the Geneva conference on Laos, and Hopson said they were sent in that capacity. But Prince Souvanna Phouma said he would receive them only as representatives of their governments.

Pathet Lao troops attacked a rightist outpost southeast of Attapeu in southern Laos Thursday, but were reported repulsed with heavy losses.

ROOKIE TIES PALMER FIRST DAY OF MEET

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — Arnold Palmer has it going again, and that is unsettling news for the men who scramble for purses on professional golf's golden highway.

"It wasn't work like it has been recently — it was fun again for a change," the perfectly relaxed three-time Masters champion beamed after posting a 3-under-par 67 Thursday for a share of the first round lead in the $100,000 Thunderbird Classic.

Tied with Palmer going into today's second round was an awed, 24-year-old rookie pro from Waterloo, Iowa, Jack Rule. Arnold had a two-stroke cushion over his principal rivals, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player.

DOZEN BUNCHED

Nicklaus, his putting touch cold, and Player, favored by a lucky ruling, were bunched with a dozen at 69 Ben Hogan, making a tournament comeback at the age of 50, was close with 71.

But the question they were asking around the 6,550-yard, par 70 Westchester Country Club course was:

"Who's going to collar the lion?"

Palmer looked like the king again as he cowed the course with his typically powerful drives and solved the spacious greens with confident putting.

The 33-year-old Palmer missed only one fairway the 18th — and one-putted eight greens, sinking the difficult seven and eight-footers as if they were kick-ins.

FINE WEATHER

Playing in beautiful, sunny weather before a gallery of more than 10,000 nineteen players in the 130-man field broke par and eight others, including Sam Snead and Dow Finsterwald, equalled it.

One shot back of Palmer and Rule were Bill Eggers of Henderson, Nev., Bob Duden of Portland, Ore., and Gay Brewer, Jr., of Dallas, all with 34-34-68.

In the 25 years since June 15, 1938, Johnny Vander Meer has told the story of his two no-hitters so often that he can start at midnight and name batter, count and umpire. The memories still are green although the Dutchman is 46 with a few extra pounds around the middle and a little gray seeding on the top.

Spencer Tracy was playing "Boys Town," Lawrin has just won the Derby and Doug Corrigan was preparing to fly to Dublin—the wrong way — when Vander Meer came to Broadway from Cincinnati with one no-hitter already in his pocket. John had blanked the Boston Braves, then managed by Casey Stengel, 3-0 on Saturday afternoon, June 11, in Cincinnati.

NIGHT BASEBALL

Now it was Wednesday night the 15th and Larry MacPhail was introducing night baseball at Elberts Field, little knowing that Vander Meer would put the icing on the cake with his second no-hitter.

Located by telephone the other midnight at a Key West, Fla., motel, he willingly recalled his night of fame.

"I was quick that night," the heavy voice said over some 1,600 miles of cables. "Lom (catcher Ernie Lombardi) called only four or five curve balls the first seven innings. Then we switched to the curve."

Did Vander Meer have any special plans for celebrating his 25th anniversary?

"Twenty five years ago when the game was over in Brooklyn I went fishing, over in Jersey, my old home state," said Johnny.

"This Saturday morning at 4 o'clock I have an appointment to go bass fishing."

TWINS SNARE 20 OF 26 TILTS ON THURSDAY

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Minnesota's Bernie Allen crashed two home runs and a single and helped the fourth-place Twins to a 6-3 victory over the Kansas City A's Thursday night.

It was the Twins' 20th triumph in their last 26 games and lifted them to within two games of first place Chicago. When their surge started, the Twins were last, 8½ games off the pace.

The White Sox, idle Thursday, took over the top spot when Baltimore came from behind in New York, beat the Yankees 5-4 and broke a five-game losing string.

Boston trimmed Washington 7-5 and Cleveland beat Detroit 5-3 in the only other games scheduled.

OTHERS STAR

In addition to Allen, who hit 269 with 12 homers last season, Vic Power and Bob Allison were the big guns in Minnesota's 13-hit attack. Power had three singles and a double and Allison drove in two runs with a double.

Jim Perry, now 5-4, got the victory with relief help from Jim Kaat.

Brooks Robinson's two-run single in the seventh brought the Orioles from behind against the Yankees. The blow pinned the loss on reliever Bill Kunkel. Robinson made it stand up in the eighth when he threw out Joe Pepitone at the plate after making a fine play on a slow roller, Steve Barber, 10-5, won it, but needed help from Dick Hall.

Willie Kirkland's two-run homer was the difference for the streaking Indians, who won their seventh straight even though out-hit by Detroit 10-5. The Tigers Al Kaline had three hits, including his 15th homer, and took over the American League batting lead at .352.

Frank Malzone's three-run homer was the big hit in Boston's victory over Washington. Dick Stuart hit his 13th homer with the bases empty in the second.

HARRISBURG (AP) — A two-car crash on Route 22, six miles east of here killed a 30-year-old mother of three Thursday and sent a New York man to a hospital.

Both were driving alone at the time of the crash.

MILD WEATHER IS PREDICTED IN MOST AREAS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation's weather showed only minor changes today, with mild temperatures in most areas and a few wet spots.

Thundershowers fell during the night in scattered sections from the Kentucky-Tennessee area westward through Kansas and along the eastern slopes of the Rockies. Showers also sprinkled sections of Nevada.

Skies were clear in the Southeast and in the middle and upper Mississippi valley and partly cloudy in most other parts of the country.

MERCURY IS UP

Temperatures were a little higher in most areas than 24 hours earlier. The 50s were confined to the central Plateau region and from North Dakota through the northern Great Lakes and the North Atlantic states.

The 70s and 80s were general in southern Atlantic states westward through the central and southern Plains and into the southwest desert region. The 60s prevailed in most other sections.

The mercury soared to 103 in Russell, Kan., Thursday and reached 100 degrees and higher in many cities in the South. Thundershowers brought temporary relief from the heat in some sections. Nearly five inches of rain drenched Sarasota, Fla.

MORE SUICIDES ARE PROMISED BY BUDDHISTS

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A faith which for thousands of years has preached poverty, self denial and nonviolence exploded this week into a ghastly human sacrifice in the middle of a busy Saigon street.

More ritual suicides have been promised by Buddhist monks and nuns involved in Tuesday's suicide by fire of a 72-year-old monk.

The monks are speaking in a new tone, one which presages more bloodshed and might even topple South Viet Nam's government, headed by President Ngo Dinh Diem, a Roman Catholic.

South Viet Nam's Buddhist leaders explained their position in a communique.

"For thousands of years," it said, "the Buddhist religion has been generous and forgiving. Because of this, Buddhism has always practiced peacefully in this country. The priests and faithful have been terrorized. Despite this, we have avoided making trouble, not because we are cowards or weak, but because, for the moment, the country is at war, and we must share this suffering."

"But unfortunately there are a number of people who use their powers to make trouble for our priests and faithful all over the country. In the face of these injustices, we are obliged to rise up and fight for our theology."

The patriarch of Vietnamese Buddhists, the Rev. Thich Tinh Khiet, said: "Our only arm is sacrifice and union of action. We strictly adopt a policy of nonviolence, but if necessary, we shall sacrifice ourselves to the last man."

Grandson Kills Grandmother, 85

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—William A. Lewis III, 34, has been formally charged with homicide in the fatal beating and stabbing of his 85-year-old grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Meurisse.

Lewis was questioned for 90 minutes Thursday night, during which time police said he denied the slaying and said, "I don't have a grandmother."

Lewis was picked up by two patrolmen in a tavern at 6 p.m., about 10 hours after the murder. He was described by police as a former mental patient.

Mrs. Meurisse was found dead by her daughter in the daughter's home in the West Oak Lane section.

She apparently had been hit on the head with one her crutches until it broke, then stabbed in the neck with its jagged pieces.

Today In Harrisburg

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton is one of several governors invited to lunch with President Kennedy next Tuesday at the White House.

Scranton's office said Thursday the governors have been called to discuss programs in which federal and state governments have an interest.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Highways Department is studying traffic patterns on major routes near the New York, Maryland, West Virginia and Delaware state lines.

Highways Secretary Henry D. Harrel said Thursday half a million motorists are expected to be interviewed at 300 locations between now and September to develop information to be used in future planning.

HARRISBURG (AP)—A total of 322 Pennsylvanians will lose their civilian status in August as part of the national draft call for 12,000 men, state Selective Service Headquarters said Thursday.

X15 Rocket Plane Being Modified To Fly 6,000 MPH At 80-Mile Height

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — The XX15 rocket plane is being modified so it can fly as fast as 6,000 miles an hour and as high as 400,000 feet, informed sources said Thursday.

The sources said the modifications will be performed on the second of the three XX15s, under a letter contract between the Air Force and the manufacturer, North American Aviation.

The work has not yet started. The Department of Defense and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration have not decided what proportion of the cost each will pay.

The X15 already has reached 4,104 m.p.h. and 314,750 feet. The increased speed and altitude would be achieved by the addition of extra fuel tanks to extend the burning time of the 57,000-pound thrust rocket engine but the problem is fuselage overheating during re-entry.

MAKING CHANGES

The planned modification would include adding heat shielding to leading edges of the wings, increasing the craft's ability to withstand air friction heat from the present 1,200 degrees (Fahrenheit) to around 2,400.

The shielding material, probably a plastic, would be similar to the heat shield on the Mercury astronaut capsule, which allows it to withstand temperatures of around 3,000 degrees in plunging back into the atmosphere.

Informed sources said one of the reasons for modification was to make the XX15 a flying test bed for new, high speed, high-altitude ramjet engines, now under consideration for proposed aerospace planes.

OPEN AMATEUR GOLF TOURNEY

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—The 10th annual Sunnehanna Golf Amateur Tournament for Champions gets underway today with Dr. Ed Updegraff of Tucson, Ariz., favored to repeat his 1962 victory.

Updegraff is the lone former champ entered in the 72-hole medal tournament at the Sunnehanna Country Club. He was a semifinalist in the British Amateur Tournament last week at St. Andrews, Scotland.

Dick Siderow of Westport, Conn., who won the title in 1961, had been entered but withdrew Thursday for personal reasons.

First-round play today has 18-holes on tap. A double round is scheduled tomorrow with the final 18-holes over the 6,826-yard course slated Sunday.

Among the 25 golfers entered are ten state amateur champs and two state open titlists.

Jim Grant of Wethersfield, Conn., the Rhode Island Open king, leads a three-man field representing the University of Houston golf team. His mates are Marty Fleckman of Port Arthur, Tex., and Harry Toscano of New Castle, Pa.

POLICE, DOGS BREAKUP ALL NIGHT VIGIL

By BILL JOHNSON

DANVILLE, Va. (AP) — Police and the threat of fire hoses broke up a planned all-night vigil by Negroes on the steps of the Municipal Building Thursday night.

Underscoring what was termed a get-tough policy, state police sent two armored cars and police dogs into reserve on the outskirts of this city of 47,000 which has been teetering on the edge of racial violence for nearly two weeks.

Mayor Julian R. Stinson, who returned Thursday night from a Richmond conference with Gov. Albert S. Harrison Jr. to find about 100 chanting demonstrators camped on the steps, told Negro leaders he would meet with them today.

HAVE POLICE RECORDS

But "I am not going to meet with a bunch of criminals," he said.

Stinson said 66 of the demonstrators had been identified through photographs as having police records. Of these, he said, 43 had been arrested during the demonstrations.

The all-night vigil had been called after Negroes marched on City Hall—in the day's second demonstration—to confront the mayor with their demands but were told he was still in Richmond.

Newsman, summoned to meet with the mayor, were closeted in the city council chamber when a fire truck rolled up amid cries from the demonstrators and unrolled three high-pressure hoses.

HALF MOVE AWAY

Three of the Negro leaders left the steps and talked with fire officials, then briefed the demonstrators. About half of the Negroes began moving away. The rest huddled along the brass rail running down the center of the

APPEAL COURT RULE

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An appeal has been entered in U. S. District Court asking that the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad be required to resume two passenger train runs between Pittsburgh, Baltimore and Washington.

The Interstate Commerce Commission permitted the railroad to discontinue its "Daylight Speedliner" trains—No. 21 and No. 22—last Jan. 21.

The Co-operative Legislative Committee of the Railroad Brotherhoods in Pennsylvania and Elizabeth G. Rhodes of Washington filed the request Thursday.

At 11:15 p.m. the spotlights which illuminate the municipal building were turned on. A fire official called from the street, "Is anyone leaving?"

Police Chief Eugene McCain shouted: "Get out of here. We are tired of fooling with you."

The police at the top of the steps then moved down, forcing the Negroes ahead of them.

"Keep these people moving," McCain shouted. "Don't let them stop until they get to Almergo," a Negro section of town.

STATE POLICE PROMOTIONS ANNOUNCED

HARRISBURG (AP)—A state police lieutenant who was a candidate for commissioner earlier this year has been made a captain by the man who got the top job.

Commissioner E. Wilson Purdy promoted lieutenant John O. Grosnik of the State Police Academy at Hershey Thursday and transferred him to the Bureau of Staff Services in Harrisburg.

Another one-time candidate for the commissioner's post, Capt. Benjamin O. Lichty, commander of the Philadelphia troop, was transferred to Highways to command the state police turnpike operation.

Lichty and Grosnik were among the five names presented to Gov. Scranton by a screening committee last January when the governor was seeking a state police commissioner.

OTHERS PROMOTED

Other promotions announced by Purdy were:

—Captain George W. Pinkerton of the traffic bureau at Harrisburg to the rank of major and chief traffic officer, succeeding Maj. John D. Kime who retired.

—Lieutenant John E. Thompson, instructor in criminal law at the academy since 1957, to the post of assistant academy superintendent, succeeding Lt. Col. Frank McKetta who has been named deputy state police commissioner.

—Lieutenant Albert L. Henry to the rank of captain, succeeding Lichty as commander of the Philadelphia troop.

Pinkerton has been with the state police since April 4, 1930, serving at Williamsport, on the turnpike detail, at Harrisburg and Philadelphia before being assigned to the traffic bureau here.

Grosnik has served since Sept. 1, 1937.

4 CONVICTED OF CONSPIRACY IN BALTIMORE

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—A federal court jury convicted four men, including former Congressmen Thomas F. Johnson and Frank W. Boykin, of conspiracy Thursday night. Attorneys for the four said they will appeal.

Johnson, 53; Boykin, 78; J. Kenneth Edlin, 64, and William L. Robinson, 37, were found guilty on 32 counts. The maximum punishment totals 19 years imprisonment and $70,000 in fines for each defendant.

U.S. Dist. Judge Ruzel Thompson postponed sentencing pending motions for appeal.

MAIL FRAUD

Johnson also was convicted of conflict of interest and the other three men with aiding in the conflict. He was accused of trying to get Edlin cleared of mail fraud charges lodged in 1959 in connection with his operation of a Maryland savings and loan firm.

Edlin eventually was convicted of the charge and served five months in prison. He and Robinson, his attorney, are from Miami.

Boykin, a Democrat, had represented Alabama's 1st District in Congress for 28 years until he was defeated in a primary in May 1962.

The indictments against Johnson were returned three weeks before last November's general election. Johnson, also a Democrat, lost his bid for re-election to Republican Rogers C. B. Morton. Johnson represented Maryland's Eastern Shore in Congress for two terms.

Lichty enlisted April 1, 1928, and served in Reading, the headquarters detective bureau here and in Lancaster before his assignment to command the Philadelphia troop in 1961.

Henry is the senior of the five with service dating back to April 20, 1927. He is a veteran of the Philadelphia troop.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A meeting of maintenance workers at the Pennsylvania Railroad's 30th St. Station, scheduled for today, has been called off, according to Andrew Kaelin, Transport Workers Union international vice president.

Kaelin said Thursday the TWU called off the meeting after an agreement was reached with the railroad to postpone abolishing jobs of eight oilers at the station.

TWU and Pennsy are to meet again Monday to discuss the dispute.

5TH CIVIL WAR ASSEMBLY TO OPEN JUNE 28

HARRISBURG, Pa.—The fifth national Civil War Round Table Assembly will be held June 28-30, 1963, just prior to the centennial observance of the Battle of Gettysburg.

The assembly is being sponsored by the Harrisburg Civil War round table in cooperation with Civil War Times Illustrated of Gettysburg. Sessions will be held at the Holiday West Motel, five miles west of Harrisburg on U.S. Rt. 15.

Invitations to more than 150 Civil War round tables in all parts of the nation to attend the assembly have been extended by Everett K. Cooper, past president of the Harrisburg round table and arrangements chairman for the assembly.

Approximately 500 Civil War buffs, delegates from the various chapters, are expected to attend the June 29 banquet to hear Emory University's Prof. Bell I. Wiley, an eminent authority on the common soldier in the Civil War, speak.

Another highlight of the assembly will come the next day when delegates travel to historic Union Mills, Md., and then on to Hanover, to attend the re-enactment of the cavalry battle fought there in June, 1863. It was the first battle fought north of the Mason-Dixon line.

Registration for the assembly will get underway late Friday afternoon, June 28. That evening will be devoted to a reception and a lecture by archivist Manuel Kean on "Civil War Photography." Delegates will also have an opportunity to see many Civil War exhibits.

Saturday's schedule will be featured by panel discussions on the Battle of Gettysburg led by competent authorities. There will be four discussion periods covering the prelude, the first day, the second day, the third day and the withdrawal of Gen. Robert E. Lee's Army following the end of the battle. The banquet will wind up activities for that day.

Cooper said the assembly is dedicated to observing the centennial of the Battle of Gettysburg, the high-water mark of the Civil War. He added that the dates have been arranged to make it convenient for delegates wishing to attend the Gettysburg Centennial program scheduled for July 1-3.

The Harrisburg Civil War round table was organized in May, 1959, with 23 charter members. John J. Coughlin was the first president. Merlo M. Hartzell is the current president.

GUARDSMEN LEAVE POSTS IN ALABAMA

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP)—Thousands of Alabama National Guardsmen return to their civilian jobs today after a third Negro entered the University of Alabama system quietly and without incident.

Dave M. McGlathery, a 27-year-old mathematician at the Marshall Space Flight Center, registered at the Alabama Extension Center Thursday.

Later, he took his seat for his first class in "series and special functions," an advanced mathematics course for graduate students.

McGlathery said the course would be difficult, but "I'll stay with it." He said he noticed no reaction from his fellow students.

13,000 LEAVE

With the three Negroes now enrolled — McGlathery at Huntsville and two others at the main campus in Tuscaloosa — the Army authorized possibly 13,000 federalized National Guardsmen to return to their regular occupations.

Units released from standby duty were those not involved in guard duty at Tuscaloosa or those engaged in summer training.

Approximately 17,000 Alabama guardsmen were called into federal service Tuesday after Gov. George C. Wallace attempted to prevent the enrollment of two Negroes at the main university campus.

About 2,000 guardsmen are deployed at Tuscaloosa. An additional 2,000 are on two weeks of active duty training at Ft. McClellan, Ala., Ft. Gordon, Ga., and Camp Shelby, Miss.

As McGlathery was registering at Huntsville, campus life was beginning to return to near normal at the university in Tuscaloosa, 160 miles to the southwest.

Barricades were removed from most of the campus and automobiles were permitted on the university grounds for the first time since Saturday.

HOLMES TELLS WHY HE QUIT SPACE OFFICE

By VERN HAUGLAND

WASHINGTON (AP)—D. Brainerd Holmes said Thursday "it tears at my heart" to quit as head of the nation's Manned Space Flight program.

He decided to leave purely for personal and family reasons — largely financial, Holmes said in an interview. It was not because of disagreements with his superiors or with the way the U.S. space effort is being administered, he said, adding: "I have no growls or gripes."

There had been widespread speculation that he submitted his resignation Wednesday because of basic differences with NASA Administrator James E. Webb and Associate Administrator Robert Seamans Jr. Holmes brushed this aside as false.

EXPLAINS PLANS

Holmes, 42, said he discussed his plans with Webb and explained his need to return to private life. As a civilian with the Radio Corp. of America he had been earning more than $50,000 a year compared with his $21,000 annual salary at NASA.

Seamans also insisted that he knew of no developing crisis within NASA or of any reasons other than those given by Holmes.

The two men were interviewed separately.

In addition to his primary duties Holmes has been serving as deputy associate administrator for the Manned Space Flight centers at Houston, Tex., Huntsville, Ala., and Cape Canaveral, Fla.,

GOOD FRIENDS

Seamans said that pending selection of a successor, he would attempt to fill in for Holmes. "Brainerd is a good friend of mine and I have known him for a long time," Seamans said, adding:

"He has done a great job of pulling the three large centers together to go along the road to a common objective. He will be missed, both personally and because of his great ability."

Holmes said it was just a "funny coincidence" that his resignation and the Mercury cancellation became known on the same day.

Performance champ... for 5 years or 50,000 miles!*

When Plymouth, Chevrolet and Ford met in a ten-event performance showdown at Riverside, California, it was to establish which one of these three cars did the best job with the motor running. As the results indicate, Plymouth pretty much had its own way—winning every acceleration test, the handling test, both passing-safety tests and the gas economy test.

Perhaps the most important point of all is that these were not "souped-up" special racing models, but standard production models with standard V-8 engines. And it ought to heighten your enthusiasm to learn that the "performance champ" has a 5-year/50,000-mile warranty* to back it up. It's some automobile. Let your Plymouth Dealer show you.

*Your Authorized Plymouth-Valiant Dealer's Warranty against defects in material and workmanship on 1963 cars has been expanded to include parts replacement or repair, without charge for required parts or labor, for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, on the engine block, head and internal parts; transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch); torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints (excluding dust covers), rear axle and differential and rear wheel bearings, provided the vehicle has been serviced at reasonable intervals according to the Plymouth-Valiant Certified Car Care schedules.

GIANTS GRAB FAST BALLER FOR $150,000

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—The major league baseball scouts attending this year's college world series are disappointed.

"The crop isn't as good as last year's," said one chief scout before he headed home with the NCAA tournament still in session.

"There's no Bob Garibaldi or Ernie Fazio here this time."

Garibaldi and Fazio, stars of Santa Clara, had the scouts bug-eyed a year ago.

The San Francisco Giants finally won the bidding battle for Garibaldi, a right-hander with a smoking fast ball, for an estimated $150,000. Houston paid Fazio $75,000 and he's currently the Colts' regular second baseman.

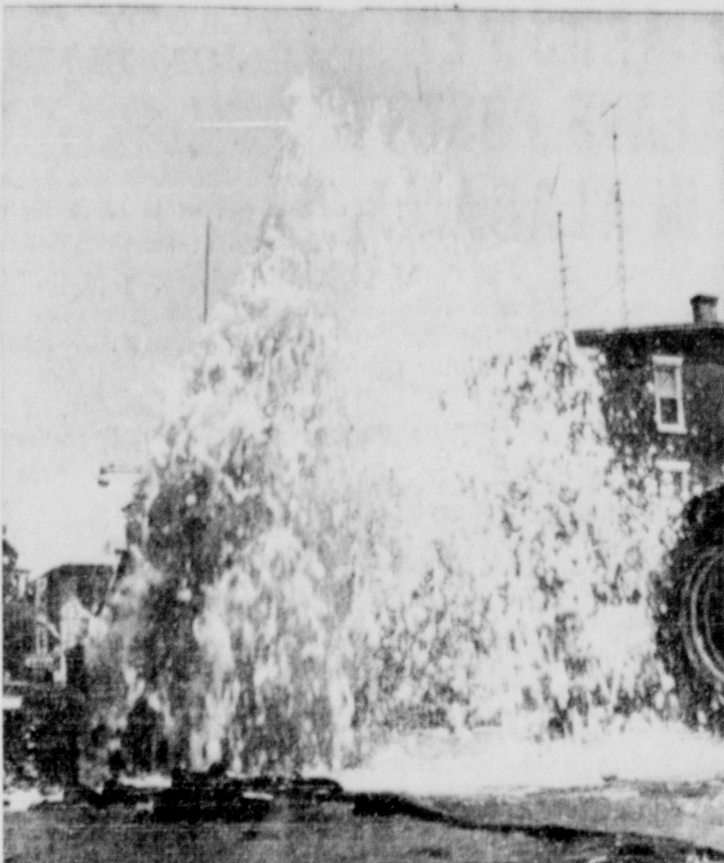

BEST PROSPECT

Nevertheless, 39 representatives from all 20 major league clubs have been here to look over the best of the college crop in the annual tournament for the national championship.

The best prospects, as listed by one scout, are pitchers Keith Weber of Missouri, Tom Myer of Texas and Dick Joyce of Holy Cross.

Joyce, a left-handed sophomore, showed good control and an excellent fast ball in losing a 3-0 duel with Weber. Most of the hotel lobby scouting rumors centered around Joyce. He reportedly has been offered $100,000 by the Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees are said to be willing to top any bid by $25,000.

Joyce's catcher, Tim Murtaugh, son of manager Danny Murtaugh of the Pittsburgh Pirates; Butch Thompson, Texas' sophomore first

When Gettysburg Municipal Authority workmen pulled a service line out of a 12-inch main in the second block of Chambersburg St. Thursday afternoon, this scene resulted until the water was cut off. Excavation underway at the time was in connection with the construction of a line to tie in the 12-inch water main on Chambersburg St. with a 10-inch main on the Gettysburg College campus. The connecting line will go out N. Franklin St., under the railroad and onto the campus. (Times photo)

JULIO MARIN HAS FIRST LEG OF TRIPLE ACE

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—Southern California's Julio Marin has the first leg of a distance triple sacked away and goes for the next one tonight in the second session of the National Collegiate track and field championships.

Marin is scheduled to go in the three-mile, one of the three finals today and tonight. He's entered in the steeplechase Saturday.

Marin, from Costa Rica, sprinted away from the field with a mile to go Thursday night and won the 6-mile in meet record time of 30 minutes 32.9 seconds. It was the first time for the event in the NCAA.

TIES MEET MARK

Arizona State University's Henry Carr tied the meet mark in the 220 and an aiding wind wiped out a broad jump record tie for Clifton Mayfield of Central, Ohio, State.

Marin's victory boosted 21-time champ Southern Cal into the team lead with 10 points. San Jose State was second with nine, followed by Villanova with six, Emporia State four and Oregon two.

Carr, who has a pending world record mark of 20.3, was all alone in his heat of the 220, winning in 20.7 and beating Big Ten champion Nate Adams by six yards.

The playful desert foothills wind cost Mayfield a meet record tie in the broad jump, hitting three meters per second during his 26-foot-7 jump. The allowable is two meters (4.473 m.p.h.).

Wandering Minds Are Nap Catchers

TORONTO (AP) — A Toronto psychiatrist says the person who claims to get along on only a few hours sleep nightly is fooling himself. He gets his sleep during his apparently waking hours.

Prof. John W. Lovett-Doust explained Thursday at the annual meeting of the Canadian Psychiatric Association that the person who spends a relatively short time in bed at night picks up the missing sleep during the day every time his mind wanders.

"Day-dreaming is sleep," he said.

Don't bake too many wafer-type cookies at a time and then you'll be able to remove them from the pans speedily before they harden.

baseball, and Woody Woodward, Florida State's shortstop, are other prime prospects the scouts mention.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Charleston Indians completed their long climb from the Class AA Eastern League cellar Thursday night and swept both ends of a doubleheader from Springfield 2-1, 11-3 to take over first place.

The sweep stretched Charleston's winning streak to eight games and left the Giants a full game off the pace.

In the opener, the Indians beat Springfield at their own game with the three hit pitching of Pete Olsen (5-2). Celestino Cepeda doubled in both Indian runs.

In the nightcap, Charleston served up a sample of its own brand of ball, pounding four Springfield pitchers for 11 hits. The Indians' big inning was the fifth when they scored five times, with four runs coming on Antulio Martinez' grand slam homer.

Tommy John (5-1) was the winner although he needed help in the eighth. Paul Colacacchi (4-3) was the loser.

In other action, Reading beat York 7-3 on a grand slam homer by Dick Gernert in the ninth to move within a game of the fourth-place White Roses. At Binghamton, Elmira blasted four homers and 14 other hits to whip the Triplets 18-6.

CARDS DEFEAT PHILLIES 7-3

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies clung grimly to sixth place in the National League today, despite a 7-3 shellacking by St. Louis Thursday night.

The Cards cut short the Phillies' brief three-game winning streak by batting 10 men in the first inning for four runs. The game was called after 5 innings because of rain.

The victory kept the Cardinals in a second place tie with San Francisco two percentage points back of Los Angeles.

Right-hander Ernie Broglio allowed six hits, including a two run homer by Roy Sievers and a solo homer by pinch-hitter Earl Averil. He picked up his seventh victory in nine decisions.

St. Louis scored in the first on a wild throw by Sievers, singles by Charley James and George Altman and a double by Julian Javier.

Chris Short, first of four Phillies pitchers, took his seventh loss against one win.

GRIMSTAD, Norway (AP) — A policeman sold the police patrol bicycle by mistake for $3.50 at a lost property auction.

The bicycle had been equipped recently with a new $5 light. The police asked the buyer to reconsider, but he refused. He said he would lend the bicycle to the police so they could keep order in the town until they bought a new bicycle.

NEW OIL WELLS POSE PROBLEM IN TINY TOWN

By JAMES J. FOX
Editor, Warren Times-Mirror
YOUNGVILLE, Pa. (AP)—

Thick, pungent, choking, the smell of money hangs over this community, mixed with fog from the creek valley and lit by the lurid glare of gas burning off a score of new oil wells.

To the people of Youngville, the smell and the fires have become a double symbol—one of new prosperity; the other of fearful bitterness.

A new oil boom has awakened this Warren County borough of 2,000 souls. It began this spring in the community's 150th year.

DANGER FROM GAS

The strong smell of gas rising from the wells has become a nuisance to many residents, particularly in the evening when fog from Brokenstraw Creek holds the odor close to the ground. Many people in the neighborhood have made a practice of extinguishing pilot lights on stoves, furnaces and water heaters to avoid an explosion.

The trouble was only a vaguely heard rumble until early this month when one of the new wells exploded, sending six people to hospital.

The explosion touched off more than a fire. In quick succession, the zoning officer resigned from the Zoning Board of Appeals and the mayor submitted his resignation.

INDIGNATION MEETING

The mayor later decided to stay in office "until this situation is cleared up."

A special session of Youngville Borough Council, attended by some 50 residents of the "oil well neighborhoods," became an indignation meeting at which councilmen sat stony-faced while people aired their complaints.

Of the 50 on hand, more than two-thirds were "anti-well." Representatives of the oil interests pleaded for "time to consider both sides of the story."

OIL ALMOST CERTAIN

Striking oil in Youngville has become almost a sure thing. The Glade Sands lie beneath the town at depths ranging from 600 to 1,000 feet. The new hydrofracture process, which shoots water under high pressure into the well, almost always produces oil.

How do the people feel about the situation?

Those who have spent the necessary $8,000 to put down wells seem satisfied with their situation. Wells produce 50 to 100 barrels a day. The barrel price is $4.50.

MOST WOULD DRILL

A few others say they would not hesitate to drill if they were sure there was oil under their land, or if they could afford it. "I'd drill right down through my bathtub if they told me there was oil there," said one resident.

On the other hand, there are many who stick to their objections to the wells on safety grounds. Several have expressed fear that there will be more explosions, or that children will be involved in well accidents in the future.

Until a compromise is reached, or safety standards which satisfy everyone are agreed upon, the smell will continue to hang over this community and the night will be lurid with the gas fires.

Meal-In-One Casserole Is Thrifty Time-Saver

MRS. HELEN D. TUNISON
Home Economist

There's everything to be said for a good, meal-in-one casserole, served piping hot under its golden-brown crust. Make it a concoction of lots of fresh vegetables; some meat, fish or chicken; a well-seasoned sauce and a topping of mashed potatoes, bread crumbs, grated cheese, etc. Here you have a delicious mingling of flavors, textures and nutrients. A casserole can be thrifty and easy to make, too, a dish which will give a busy homemaker a few minutes of leisure just before dinner.

A casserole—the dish itself—should have a well-fitted lid. This permits food to steam through, covered, and speeds up the cooking time. This is one of the best ways to cook fresh vegetables since you serve all the nutrient-rich juices and catch every bit of flavor in a casserole mixture.

When the food appears almost tender if pierced with a fork, remove the lid and let the top brown. Or you can pop it under the broiler for a minute or two. Parboil some of these slow-cooking fresh vegetables, such as potatoes, carrots or turnips before casseroling them. Ten minutes in boiling salted water is enough. Leafy green vegetables should be cooked just long enough to wilt them so they become less bulky and mix better with other ingredients.

As you will see from the recipe for fresh vegetable casserole, it is possible to make a delicious meal-in-one without meat, though, using a couple bouillon cubes for flavor. Fresh vegetable casserole is made with half dozen fresh vegetables in an herb and broth sauce, the whole topped with buttered crumbs. The other casserole combinations include meats or fish.

FRESH VEGETABLE CASSEROLE

1 cup diced potatoes
1 cup fresh snap beans
1 cup sliced onions
1 cup sliced carrots
1 cup fresh corn cut off the cob
1 cup sliced zucchini squash
1 cup boiling water
2 beef bouillon cubes
1 small clove garlic
2 teaspoons salt
2 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper
1/2 cup water
1/4 cup teaspoon marjoram leaves
1/4 teaspoon basil leaves
2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
1/4 cup soft bread crumbs
Place in a saucepan, all vegetables, boiling water, bouillon cubes, garlic and salt. Cover and cook 10 minutes or until tender. Blend flour, black pepper, water and herbs until smooth. Carefully stir into the vegetables. Turn into a 1 1/2 quart casserole. Mix melted butter or margarine with bread crumbs and sprinkle over the top. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (375° F.) 25 minutes or until crumbs are brown. Yield: 6 servings.

FISH STEAK AND VEGETABLE CASSEROLE

1 1/2 tablespoons chopped onion
2 teaspoons butter or margarine
1 cup fresh snap beans
1 cup 1-inch celery chunks
1 cup diced or sliced carrots
1 1/2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 1/2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper
1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
1 1/2 cups milk
3/4 cup grated sharp Cheddar cheese
1/4 cup fine dry bread crumbs

Saute onion in 2 teaspoons butter or margarine. Parboil snap beans, celery chunks and sliced carrots in boiling salted water 10 minutes. Add to sauted onion. Make a white sauce by melting 1 1/2 tablespoons butter or margarine. Stir in flour, salt, ground black pepper and garlic powder. Blend in milk and heat only to boiling point, stirring constantly. Stir in cheese. Place equal portions of vegetables into each of four individual casseroles. Top with 1/2 cup fish. Pour cheese sauce over fish. Sprinkle with bread crumbs. Bake in a moderate (350° F.) for 25 minutes or until crumbs are brown.

BEEFBURGER CASSEROLE

(6 servings) bake in 350° (moderate oven) 30 minutes.
1/2 cup uncooked rice
1 cup water
1 onion
1 pound ground beef
2 cups canned tomatoes with juice
1 pint (No. 303 can) corn, drained
2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon salt

Start oven heating to 350°. Grease a casserole. Put rice, water and 1/4 teaspoon salt in saucepan. Cover, bring to a boil. Turn heat low and cook 15 minutes. Chop onion fine. Put onion and beef in skillet and cook over moderate heat. Stir and turn until meat has browned. Stir tomatoes, corn, rice, and 2 teaspoons salt into meat. Pour mixture into greased casserole. Bake 30 minutes. It will be bubbly when done.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

Drummer Boy Candidates And Judges Announced

Competition begins at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon on Lincoln Square to select the "Drummer Boy of the Union" and "Drummer Boy of the Confederacy." The Civil War Drummer Boys Contest is one of a week-long series of special events planned for Campaign Gettysburg Days, a project of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Named as judges for the competition are: George Olinger, member of the Civil War Round Table; John Smarsh, seasonal historian with the National Park Service. Both are residents of Gettysburg and will judge the candidates on "authenticity of uniform" and "showmanship."

To judge the candidates' drumming ability, two York County drum specialists have been appointed. They are Philip W. Stinger and Richard C. Flinchbaugh. Stinger's background includes the Pennsylvania All Master High School Band (1942), General MacArthur Headquarters Band, member of Spring Garden Band, and director of the York Catholic High School Band. Flinchbaugh has been associated with the Pennsylvania High School State Band, drum sergeant in the U.S. Air Force Drum & Bugle Corps, and is a member of the Spring Garden Band.

13 CANDIDATES

Candidates for the two trophies are:

George Carothers Bougher, 14, 2919 Mattern Ave., Pittsburgh. His great-grandfather, James Adams, lived to be one of the oldest Civil War veterans in Pennsylvania. He is a newspaper boy for The Pittsburgh Press and member of a musical combo playing for school dances, hospitals and parties.

Eugene Feather, 15, Bedford R. 1, is the sponsored entry of the Bedford Lions Club. He is high school sophomore, and plays the drums in the Bedford High Band.

Harold Ford Jr., 14, 526 York St., is the lone Gettysburg entrant. He is sponsored by Timely Furniture, Inc.

Jerry L. Grandel, 16, Washington R. 6, Pa., is entered as a candidate of Trinity High School and the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Washington.

Thomas C. Hoak Jr., 15, Westmoreland, Pa., reports, "My great-grandfather, Thompson J. Hoak, fought in the Battle of Gettysburg."

Robert V. Kreasko, 15, Vintondale, Pa., comes to Gettysburg under sponsorship of the Farmer Store-General Store, Vintondale.

Edward Lee McAleer, 10 1/2, Arlington, Va., will enter with the backing of the 9th Virginia Cavalry.

Thomas McDevitt, 14, Bedford, Pa., is the entry of Ed's Steak House.

Cecil L. McWilliams III, 14, R. 3, Sarver, Pa., is sponsored by Knoch High School, Saxonsburg, Pa.

David Miles, 13, R. 1, Washington, is one of two registered from a city from which a number of men joined various Pennsylvania regiments in the 1860's.

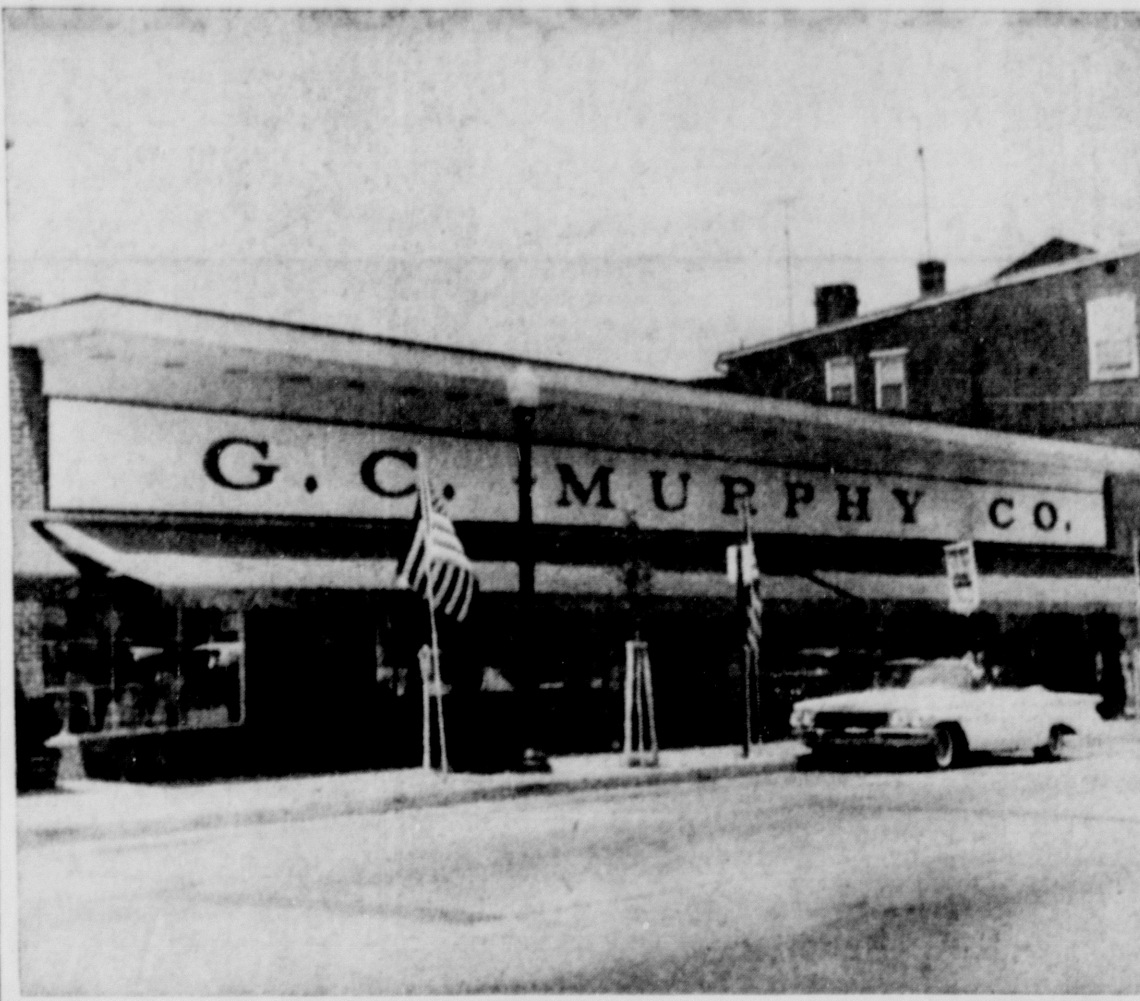

James Powders, 14, Pittsburgh, is the great-grandson of Lt. David Leshner Powders who organized his own company, the 207th Pennsylvania Volunteers.

Michael W. Russell, 14, Indiana, Pa., will represent the Indiana County Historical Society. Berwyn H. Russell Jr., a brother, is a student at the Lutheran Seminary.

Pvt. Kenneth Lee Smith, 13, Alexandria, Va., is Regimental Drummer, 17th Virginia Infantry Regiment, C.S.A., Alexandria.

Drum selections, prepared with the assistants of Paul Grove, music director at Gettysburg High School, includes measures from "British Drummers Call," "Sentry Box," "The American Flag," "Downfall of Paris" and "Connecticut Hailtime."

Second baseman Pete Rose of the Cincinnati Reds was scouted by his uncle, Buddy Bloebaum, who scouts for the Reds.

First baseman Jerry Sutton paced Michigan State's baseball team in homers with eight and in runs batted in with 34 this season. He hit .350 in 30 games.

Phil Regan, a Detroit pitcher since 1960, turned in his first major league shutout when he blanked the Cleveland Indians, 14-0, on three hits May 10.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today if Friday June 14, the 163rd day of 1963. There are 200 days left in the year. Today is Flag Day.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1777, the Continental Congress made the stars and stripes the flag of the United States. June 14 was first observed as Flag Day under an official proclamation by President Woodrow Wilson.

On this date:

In 1811, the author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin"—Harriet Beecher Stowe—was born at Litchfield, Conn.

In 1834, Leonard Norcross obtained a patent on the first practical submarine diving suit.

In 1913, the Gatun locks of the Panama Canal were completed.

In 1941, President Franklin D. Roosevelt ordered immediate freezing of all assets of Axis and Axis-occupied countries although Japan was not included in the order.

In 1954, Sir Winston Churchill was installed and invested as a knight of the garter—England's highest honor.

Ten years ago: President Eisenhower dedicated President Theodore Roosevelt's home at Oyster Bay, N.Y., as a national shrine. Five years ago: The German city of Munich observed the 800th anniversary of its founding.

One year ago: delegates from 10 European countries signed in Paris a convention creating a European space research organization.

The Kansas City Athletics are using the same colors on their home and traveling uniforms this season. They are Tulane gold and Kelly green. The uniforms also contain red white and blue.

Any mint flavoring in the house? Flavor chocolate milk with it, add scoops of chocolate ice cream and you'll have a dream offering for teen-agers or oldsters. Small fry will probably prefer this refreshing beverage without the mint flavoring, and may prefer to have vanilla rather than chocolate ice cream in the chocolate-flavored milk.

NEW YORK (AP)—Fragments from letters we'd like to get—but never do:

"We regret to inform you of the passing of your great uncle, Oswald Frothingham-Frisbie, who choked to death on a martini olive. In his will he left you a 30,000-acre sheep ranch in Australia and his pet kangaroo."

"As a dentist who takes pride in his profession, I have been suffering conscience pangs because of the $400 fee I charged for making your upper plate. I realize now I shouldn't have put the bite on you for that much, as the job really wasn't worth it. Therefore I am sending you herewith a rebate check for $250—and the next time you come in for a checkup I'll clean your lower teeth for nothing."

"We are delighted to give you the good news that you have won first prize in the Republican party's nationwide 50-word essay contest, 'What Calvin Coolidge Means to Me.' In addition to the free trip to Hawaii for you and your wife, we are pleased to send you a framed autographed picture of Mr. Coolidge and an Indian head penny found in the pocket of a suit in his closet. It is believed by local historians to be the first penny he ever earned."

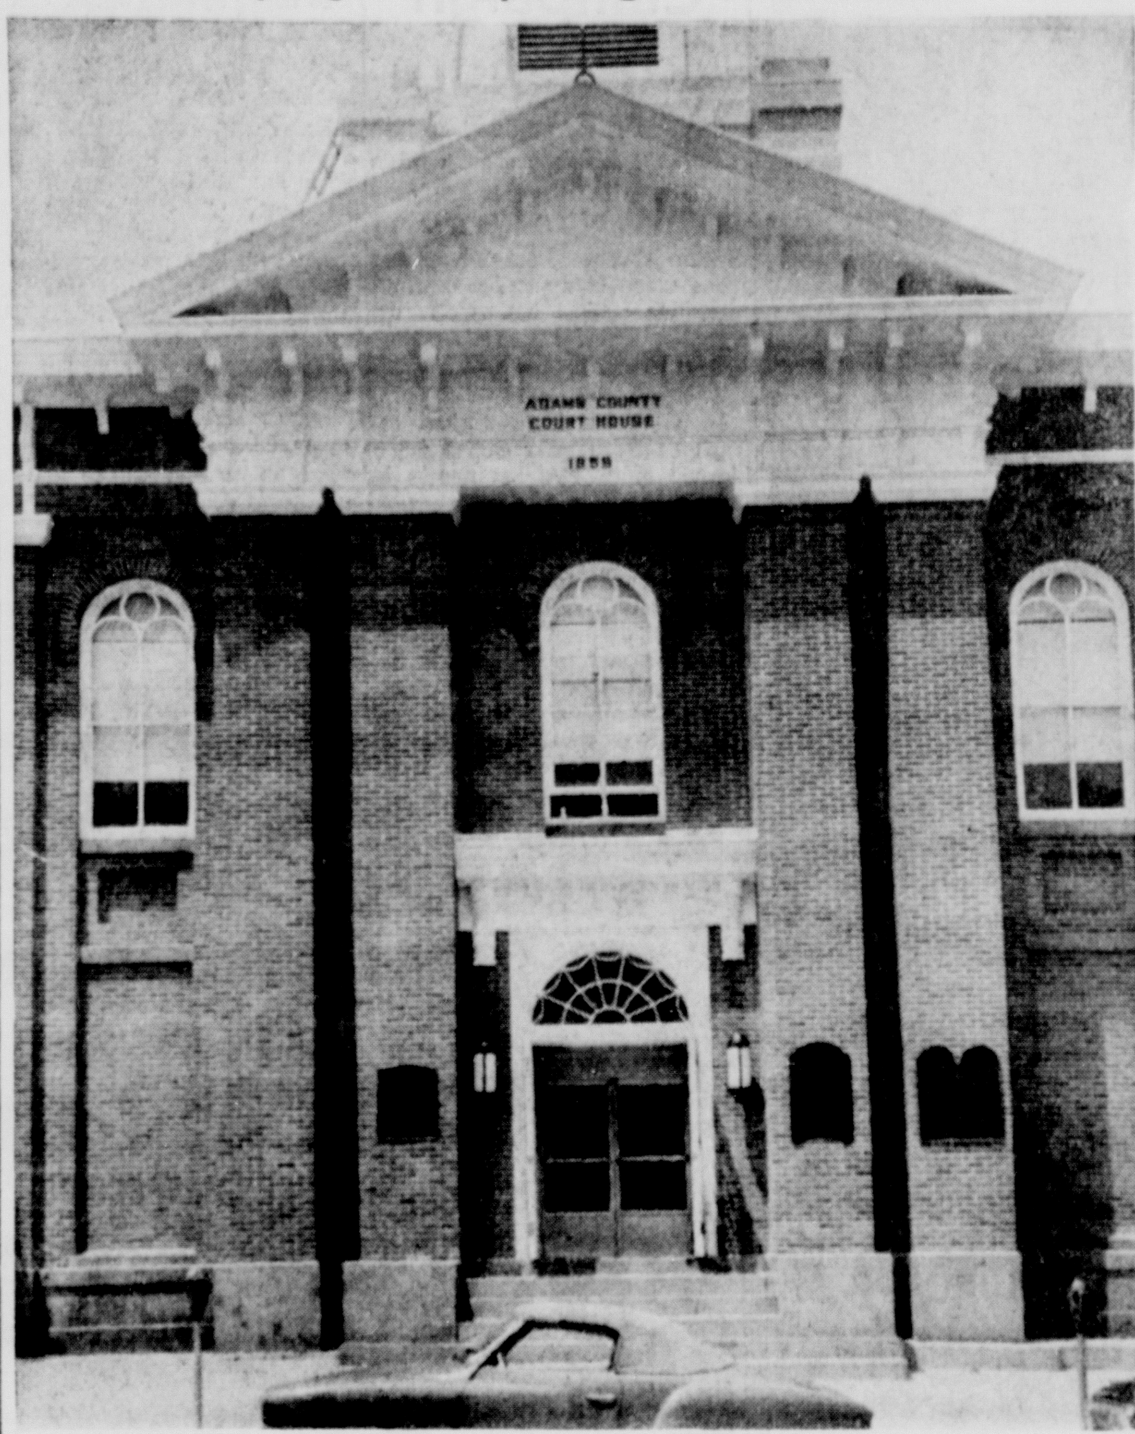

"Darling, forget the fact that father is an immensely wealthy man who looks upon you as a mere fortune hunter. After all, we won't be dependent on him. Grandmother left me 30 acres of downtown Dallas in my own right, and as soon as we're married I'll give half of it to you. Of course, if you don't think we'd be happy in Dallas, we could sell our real estate there—and buy Fort Worth or Houston."

"I know mother had her heart set on a big wedding for me, Dad, dykins, but it would be such a terrible bother—and the reception and everything would cost you $1,000 or maybe $1,500. So George and I just decided to elope and get married by a justice of the peace. Will you forgive us?"

"During my visit here with mother, darling, I've had more time to think over the idea of buying that mink coat, and have decided it would be foolish. Fur makes me look too fat. So, if you haven't already borrowed the money from the bank, forget it. An inexpensive cloth coat will do nicely, and I can pay for that myself out of what I've saved from the household budget."

"The President read with keen interest your thoughtful letter appraising the domestic situation, and would like to have you closer at hand for advice on the foreign situation. He has asked me in strict confidence whether you would be interested in a Cabinet post. Naturally, the government would pick up the tab for your moving expenses."

SELECT STAFF FOR THEATER

William H. Putsch, producer-director of the Totem Pole Playhouse in Caledonia State Park, has selected his staff for the 1963 summer season. A group of five technical personnel come from Wagner College, Staten Island, where they performed a similar function.

Al Wagner, who has designed at the White Barn Theater in Pittsburgh and served as technical director at the Bucks County Playhouse, will head the staff as designer of stage settings. Walter Kristiansen will be technical director and Steven Geller will be his assistant. Roger Andrus will act as electrician and his brother, Bruce Andrus, will be stage manager. Also on the staff returning from last summer after a winter in Pittsburgh with the Pittsburgh Children's Theater is William Matthews of Hazleton. Betty Knepper returns for her seventh season as property mistress and in charge of stage decor. Mrs. Knepper will also handle special costuming. Bobby G. Thompson of Montgomery, Ala., and Maureen Flanagan of New Jersey complete the staff of assistants.

Mrs. Richard Merriman, of Chambersburg, will be in charge of the box office for her third season, while Mrs. John Dice of Caledonia, new to the box office staff, will complete the front of

TRAVELING KENTUCKY

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Out-of-state travelers spent $205 million in Kentucky last year, a University of Tennessee survey indicates.

The report says the $17,715,000 in taxes paid by the tourists was nearly 6 per cent of all state revenue during 1962.

Roll out leftover pie pastry and cut into small squares. Put a small piece of cheese in the center of each and fold over and seal with fork tines. Bake in a hot oven until golden brown.

The 1963 season will get underway Saturday night at 8:40 p.m. with the comedy hit "Come Blow Your Horn."

Dramatic Advances Are Reported Against Leukemia

By FRANK E. CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP)—New and dramatic advances have been made in the last two years against acute leukemia.

That's the presently incurable flood-cancer disease that recently killed Ernie Davis, the great Negro football player of Syracuse University and the Cleveland Browns.

Government cancer fighters say there are grounds for hope that additional major gains will be achieved in the years ahead in prolonging the life of victims of this strange malady, which occurs in various forms in both children and adults.

LESSER GAINS

Lesser gains are being made against chronic leukemia — the kind that recently killed Rep. Francis E. Walter, D-Pa., 69, who was chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Three new drugs have been developed since 1961 against acute leukemia—two of them in the past year. This brings to six the number of drug weapons against the malady.

Leukemia kills about 14,000 people annually, and adds some 16,000 new cases every year to the approximately 800,000 Americans suffering from all forms of cancer at any given time.

Leukemia, for reasons unknown, has been on the increase in the last few decades.

NEW DRUGS

Even with the new drugs, life-prolongation in acute leukemia still averages less than two years. But there have been notable exceptions of victims surviving up to 13 years after the initial diagnosis. Drug benefits are limited largely to children.

Fifteen years ago, victims of acute leukemia almost invariably died within three or four months after the initial diagnosis. Some died within a few days.

Chronic leukemia, while also ultimately fatal, is much slower to kill. The average survival is three to five years, but a few victims many live 10 years or longer. Notable cases have survived almost 40 years.

FORM OF MYRTLE

One of the three new drugs, called Vincristine, is an extract of the periwinkle plant, a form of myrtle. Another, called Methy Gag for short, is an entirely new type of compound among some two dozen chemicals, out of literally thousands tested so far, which have been found useful against various types of cancer. The third new one, called Cyclophosphamide, is a new member of a class of compounds called nitrogen mustards, the first of which originally was used as a poison gas in World War I.

Researchers and grantees of the National Cancer Institute see promising possibilities in "team" application of the drugs—what is, using varied combinations against the foe, which inexorably develops resistance to a given individual drug.

Researchers have developed two new "supportive" treatments which show promise of forestalling death in other ways—thus giving additional time to allow the drugs to produce their maximum punch.

HAIRDRESSERS BEWAIL END OF BRITISH BOOM

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP)—Beauty parlor operators have let down their hair and admitted that Britain's big hairdressing boom has gone bust.

"It's over all right," says Taylor Briggs, secretary of the National Federation of Hairdressers, "and there are several reasons for it."

He went on: "Hairdressing is not getting a fair deal if a man can close a fish and chips shop one day and open up the next as the proprietor of a hairdressing salon."

A fish and chips shop is often a hole in wall which serves one of Britain's national dishes—fried fish and French fried potatoes.

They flourish, but up until a few months ago, there was a lot more money in beauty parlors, called hairdressing salons over here.

NO DIPLOMAS NEEDED

Four years ago there were 40,000 hairdressing salons in Britain with an annual turn over of $224 million a year.

They were opening at a rate of 600 a year.

Before Britain's disastrous winter of 1962-63, the beauty parlors were grossing about $280 million annually.

Britain is one of the few countries in Europe that does not require beauty parlor technicians to have degrees or diplomas.

Many handsomely-furnished salons in the center of London are either closing or looking for someone to buy them.

It's the same story in other cities.

"A lot of salons in the north have closed down or are doing very little business," says Anthony Carl, who runs a place in Manchester.

HIGH SALARIES A CAUSE

"Midland cities have had their roughest three months for a quarter of a century," says Michael Miles, secretary of the Birmingham branch of the National Federation of Hairdressers.

In London, one of the big troubles is competition and rising rents.

A contributing cause is the high salary demanded by skilled operators, often as high as $168 a week.

But while many shops have closed or are going through a hard period, a minority are flourishing.

These are run by real professionals who offer high efficient service.

"You can't fool women anymore," says the owner of one of these.

Campaign Gettysburg

Sometimes the origin of an idea becomes lost in the chaotic mists of enthusiasm. Such is the case with "Campaign Gettysburg." As though it came from the anonymous voice of an entire community, this project has quietly restored much of the past's poetry in architecture.

Who gets the credit?

Many people have worked toward a restoration of Gettysburg's historic image. To list names is to risk omission of someone who figured prominently in "Campaign Gettysburg."

Certainly the town owes a debt of gratitude to groups of citizens and businessmen who invested both time and money in the interests of preserving past values even as the town builds for the future.

future.

To the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce must go the lion's share of credit for its steadfast leadership in obtaining, developing and executing all plans relevant to the restoration.

The Saturday Evening Post and the Curtis Publishing Company have backed "Campaign Gettysburg" with both money and manpower, with imaginative resourcefulness which acknowledges the importance of Gettysburg as a national as well as a local monument to the American heritage.

Sad Is The Tale Of Purloined Cat

SPRING VALLEY, N. Y. (AP) — Harvey Schiff put out the cat one night and the next morning could not find him. He was worried but started to work as usual in his car pool.

A couple of blocks from home one of the men in the car said, "Hey, Harvey, isn't that your cat walking along the road?" He said it was, they picked up the cat, returned to the Schiff house and Harvey put the cat in the living room.

When he returned home from work that evening, Mrs. Schiff said, "Harvey, our cat doesn't look well. His tail is droopy. I think you better take him to the vet for a distemper shot."

So Schiff and cat visited the vet and when he drove in his driveway, who did he see waiting on his porch? His cat.

SPRING BOOTS MAKE DEBUT

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — What's this new boot craze coming to? Must girl watchers henceforth content themselves with the memory of a trim ankle? Or will sympathetic designers insert transparent panels to assure the anxious ogles they still exist? Boots started the climb hesitantly a few years ago with the Robinhood type of sports boot; stole past the ankle with the Western boot; reached the calf with the high heeled boot; and then soared to the knee with the all-weather boot.

Now, if a clever designer conceives a way to hinge them stylishly at the joints, ladies are likely to ease the tibio fibia and femur too into an armorlike affair.

Fruitless are the hopes of rabid ankle fans for a bootless summer. Warm weather styles are already waiting for the winter to pass.

The eternal spring leather favorite, black patent, has been fashioned into high boots and lined with bright kid colors. Grained, smooth, or brush leather boots too are popping up in a myriad of pastel blues, yellows and pinks and vivid reds, greens and turquoises, too.

Campaign Gettysburg — Texas Lunch

What beats the heat is a new tanning technique which achieves a lightweight and pliable leather. Wide open tops in the boot design also contributes to its natural air conditioning system.

The summer boot kick includes the ankle high bootie, to be worn with tight pants, slacks, and casual skirts.

For townwear, the height of the boot shoe is a personal matter, the choice depending on what is becoming to the leg or the figure. However, smooth leather mid-calf lengths in bone, beige and tan colors are considered the thing to wear with hipbone jacket suits.

Hostesses will get a boot out of low, gold kid ones. Wonderful with skimmer dresses or party pants at patio parties, they are not to be scorned in the ballroom either.

Why hide pretty legs in boots? On inclement days, boots keep feet dry and protect legs from puddle splash. On nice days, they preserve hosiery. Primarily, they are comfortable and chic.

There is still another reason. Those gams underneath may not be as curvaceous as the male envisions. It is better, in these cases, to frustrate him with boots than disillusion him.

Al Butts, captain-elect of Columbia's football team, has been elected to captain the Lion baseball team of 1964. The Poughkeepsie, N.Y., native also captained the nine this spring.

Last-minute dish: Heat a pound jar of sweet and sour red cabbage in a big skillet with a pound of frankfurters. You'll need to cover the pan and simmer for about 10 minutes. Serve with mashed potatoes made from a package. Pass the mustard!

It's usually best to have meat cut in at least 1½-or-2-inch chunks if the meat is to be threaded on skewers and broiled. If the meat is given a marinade, it is perfectly safe to allow it to stand (in the refrigerator) overnight or even for a couple of days.

When you need to mix a beaten egg with a hot mixture, be sure to pour the hot mixture very slowly into the egg, stirring constantly as you do so. This way of mixing prevents the eggs from curdling.

Ever use sour cream as a dressing for slaw? Season it with lemon juice and sugar.

When Mechanics Go Wrong, All Is Bad

CHARLOTTE, N. C. — Date-processing equipment is being used more and more widely by the public schools to make class assignments keep grade records and the like. But sometimes the machines slip up, as they did at Myers Park High School here.

The result, according to the publication, "Education U.S.A.": One girl received a monotonous schedule with several lunch periods; another had only one lunch period, but it was at 8:45 a.m.; a student who had flunked French I three times found himself promoted to French IV; and another student almost got away with a restful semester — three study halls.

School officials blamed it all on human error in preparing the data.

KENNEDY ASKS UNION TO AID JOB PROBLEM

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has asked labor union officials to join the federal government in a massive attack on job discrimination.

And he got a long-distance pledge from AFL-CIO President George Meany that the unions will support him.

The President made his appeal Thursday as he conferred at length with more than 200 union representatives at the White House.

After the session, one labor leader said Kennedy made five major requests of the AFL-CIO for what he termed "this summer of determined effort."

LISTS POINTS

The points were listed this way: 1. The President asked the AFL-CIO to set up a top-level committee to work with the administration in a concerted drive on job discrimination.

2. Kennedy asked for all-out support from the trade union movement for his legislative package of social and economic measures.

3. He urged an all-out campaign to build up voter registrations, particularly among minority groups.

4. He called on international unions to put more Negroes in position of responsibility. Kennedy was quoted as saying: "As I look around this room, there are too many white faces, both down there and up here."

5. He proposed that the unions take the initiative in forming bi-racial councils across the nation.

IS DAD A DUD OR MAN WITH "STANDING"?

NEW YORK (AP) — Is dad a dud these days, or does he still have standing in the family circle?

For years, psychologists and sociologists have been taking potshots at pop, calling him everything from a figurehead to a hen-pecked onlooker. Many an anthropologist has sighed over that crumbling institution known as fatherhood.

But what do those closest to the beleaguered parent say? Do the kids have an opinion?

They do — and it's one of the nicest presents father will get this Fathers Day.

A survey by Associated Press bureaus turns up the heartening view that youngsters from 3 to 18 think dad not only is one of the good guys, in most cases he's the best.

YOUNG WORRY

The young ones worry because he smokes, cusses, nags, "expects too much of me," doesn't spend enough time with the family because he works too hard and long or—in fewer instances—because he puts in too much time at church meetings or playing golf.

What would they like dad to do that he doesn't?

Come to their Little League games, not leave picnics so early, play football, bowl, ski, socialize, relax and enjoy himself more, fix something right away when it needs it, "not joke when I'm serious," "sit down and discuss things more with me"—a 16-year-old girl—and from 13 on up, toss them the keys to the car.

COURT PROBES EUB MERGER

HARRISBURG (AP) — A proposal to merge the Eastern Pennsylvania and Northeastern Conferences of the Evangelical United Brethren Church into a new 75,000 member of conference is under study today by Dauphin County Court.

The EUB asked the court Thursday to approve the new conference which would take in an area from Maryland to Maine and the East Coast to Harrisburg.

The church also filed a 40-page booklet with the court giving details of the proposed consolidation.

The petition stated that both conferences approved the merger at separate meetings June 5. The Eastern Pennsylvania Conference voted 181 to 23 for the plan while the Northeastern Conference endorsed it 210 to 0.

Dr. Charles Kachel of Reading was listed as superintendent of the proposed new conference.

Laborite Calls On Ailing Red

MOSCOW (AP)—Harold Wilson, leader of Britain's Labor party, has called on First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan who has been ailing since early May with kidney trouble. They spent 90 minutes at Mikoyan's dacha near Moscow.

Afterward, Wilson said Mikoyan is "obviously a lot better but not yet 100 per cent." He described the visit Thursday as a social call and said foreign affairs were not discussed. He said they talked about trade, industrial development and personal matters.

Nice for that evening get-together: Skewers of baked ham cubes alternated with cocktail onions, pimiento-stuffed olives. Serve with party-size slices of buttered rye bread, or make sandwiches of the bread using a mustard-butter filling.

LAKEHURST, N.J. (AP) — A prototype of the Echo II Communications Satellite—an inflated balloon 135 feet in diameter—was demonstrated Thursday by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

NASA is conducting two to three weeks of tests on this balloon before launching the Echo II later this year from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif.
